1. EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

1.1 INTRODUCTION

Panihati Mahavidyalaya (a degree college) was established on 03.02.1976 for the empowerment of education of the students of locality. It is located at Barasat Road, Sodepur, Kolkata – 700110. It is now replete with all relevant potentialities to accommodate a large number of students and meet their multifarious educational needs.

Formerly, it was affiliated to University of Calcutta in the session 1978-79 but now after the establishment of West Bengal State University in 2008, it is under this University. The college is driven by the able guidance of the duly constituted Governing Body, the Principal and her team of active and eminent faculty members.

The college had a humble beginning with few departments in the arts and commerce stream but within few years Science stream was also introduced. It is a Govt.-aided co-educational college. Most of the students hail from lower middle class families of the society. The college has provided scope for higher education to the students of average or even below average merits mostly belonging from lower-middle class background and many of them are first generation learner of higher education. The working hours are from 10 A.M. to 5.00 P.M. However, to perform all duties in time college remains open beyond scheduled working hour. Several Undergraduate Honours and General Programmes. Basically all the programme options are mainly on lecture based annual system. However, the College has adopted CBCS system from the 2018-19 academic session. Moreover, active teacher-student interactive method of class teaching is also followed. Innovative methods of teaching based on ICT based facilities are also used by few teachers in class room teaching. The programmes executed by the institution are all in modular form.

Vision

- To offer education to mostly the first generation learners with modern approaches.
- To consolidate activities of development through centralized administration.
- To expand the courses to higher level of studies with modernization of educational approaches.
- To link with the needs of the locality.

Mission

- Administrative monitoring on general & academic activities and execution of proposals & demands after evaluation.
- To prevent excess drainage of resources maintenance and recurring expenses for general and departmental purposes are under thorough evaluation.
- Modernization of college website, office and accounts and surveillance through CCTV to maintain college integrity.
- Centralized use of UGC funds to enhance general and ICT support infrastructure.
- To consider proposals of opening PG courses for some departments in preceeding years.
- To support research, development and innovative initiatives with proposals to bring extramural funds for expanding education and research beyond curriculum.

- To encourage and support extension and social outreach activities relevant for local society.
- To provide training for skill development to students and local youth.
- Overall, to upgrade the education environment with modernized approaches and avenues to spread the effective education with social values.

1.2 Strength, Weakness, Opportunity and Challenges(SWOC)

Institutional Strength

- Conducive teaching-learning environment.
- A team of enthusiastic and energetic group of teaching and non-teaching staff.
- A sincereand disciplined group of students.
- Equipped laboratory set-up.
- Catering to the need of socio-economically backward section of the society.
- Visionary leadership of the Governing Body.
- Favourable location of the college.

Institutional Weakness

- Absence of Guardian'sForum.
- Severe space constraint as well as severe shortage of full-time teaching and office staffs.
- Compelled to reduce the cut-off marks for admission of students because the meritorious students are reluctant to take admission under this University.
- Lack of sufficient number of ICT based facilities.
- The College does not have a Placement Cell as it provids only mainstream basic courses.

Institutional Opportunity

- To open PG Courses in few subjects.
- To offer the research support to faculty members.
- To prepare the final year studentsfor Competitive Examinations.
- To create a Placement Cell and introduce a few placement oriented courses.

Institutional Challenge

- Standard of students is very poor because most of them come from economically backward families. A large percentage of them are also first generation learners.
- Migration of a good number of students to colleges affiliated to University of Calcutta and other Universities is a great threat for us.
- Limited resources and opportunities available to the faculty members which hinders the promotion of research work.
- Insufficient time spent by the students in the college central library during the college hours.

1.3 CRITERIA WISE SUMMARY

Curricular Aspects

- The vision of the college started to expand the horizon to offer options and opportunities to local community for higher education which is governed by consolidating activities to centralize administration for controlled development presently for the upliftment of curricular aspects.
- Administrative monitoring, modernization of college websites, office, accounts, ICT facilities, CCTV surveillance to facilitate the good and conducive environment of the college for development of academic and administrative standard.
- College publishes the routine, academic calendar at the beginning of the session to complete the curriculum and other aspects to ensure successful implementation of the academic purposes as per University schedule.
- Well equipped departmental laboratories cater the students of Honours and General courses among which Geography, Chemistry, Physics, Education and some others are worth mentioning.
- During the past seven years eight new programmes are introduced by the institution (Education Honours & Physics Honours in 2008, Sanskrit General in 2009, Sanskrit Honours, Food & Nutrition General and Journalism and Mass Communication in 2010 and Computer Science Honours and Chemistry Honours in 2009).
- UGC supported tutorials, remedial coaching, entry-in-service etc and other student support programmes are conducted by college to enhance students' efficiency.
- Educational excursion, field survey, student projects, wall magazines etc. being part of curriculum are supported by college for enriching the academics and involve students into community development programme.
- College authority signed a MOU with National Skill Development Corporation for training students to make them efficient for employment and this initiative is running successfully.
- Feedbacks from students and guardians are collected and discussion going on based on such feedbacks to proceed for advance steps.

Teaching-learning and Evaluation

- Online admission process started from 2015 – 16 sessions in strict adherence with WB Govt rules.
- The functional website contains brochure and admission rules to guide students. Other information and notices are also updated in website for the convenience of stakeholders.
- Teaching learning processes are facilitated by the use of LCD projectors, and many of the teachers are equipped with power-point and other interactive and modern methods of teaching.
- One partially smart classroom facility with audio-visual aids and one e-classroom facility has developed to provide modern age teaching-learning facilities.
- Equipped practical classes with required facilities fulfil the students need in different departments.
- College is regularly conducting short term and annual evaluation centrally and also on departmental basis to engage students and uplift their performances.
- Enriched central library with about books, journals, and digitized system. College library is associated with INFLIBNET facilities and e-journal facilities is planning to be introduced.
- The college strictly follows the reservation policy of the state government regarding backward classes and adheres to the directives of the home University in this respect.
- Student feedbacks along with parents were taken to enhance the overall academic performances.
- As most of our students come from the lower middle class income group, minority community and first generation learners, hence the institution is bound to keep the fee-structure at moderate levels which often fail to generate sufficient fund to meet the essential expenditure. The academic year of every affiliated college under WBSU starts from 1st day of June and ends on 30th of May next year. The no. of teaching days for the last academic year was 180 days.

Out of 23 sanctioned teaching posts, 21 posts including Principal are filled up and 2 remain vacant. One sanctioned Librarian post has been filled up during 2016. Now, the shortage of teaching staff is filled up by appointing guest lecturers on temporary basis and the remuneration of which is paid out of college funds. Moreover, the college has 14 Contractual Whole Time Teachers and 9 Part-time Teachers whose remuneration is paid by the Govt. of West Bengal.

Research, Innovations and Extension

- The college Governing Body is taking initiative with IQAC to develop a comprehensive strategy to develop research environment and support individual footmarks of research excellence. In futuristic approach, plannings are under process to encourage research and consultancy.
- Several teachers have Ph.D. degree as highest qualification and 2 teachers are recognized as Ph.D. guides.
- Some of the teachers acted as resource person on different workshop, seminar, conference etc. organized by outside organization.
- Moreover, teachers are always encouraged and motivated to participate in faculty development programmes like Refresher Course, Orientation Programme, Summer School/Camp etc. organized by academic staff college of different universities.
- One of our teachers, Dr. Anirban Ghosh, Assistant Professor in Zoology, has already taken several initiatives to work in the field of neuroimmunology. He has completed UGC Minor Research Project and has undertaken three Major Research Projects funded by Science and Engineering Research Board (SERB), GOI, Council of Scientific and Industrial Research (CSIR), GOI and Indian Council of Medical Research (ICMR), GOI as Principal Investigator. He has different research collaboration, acting as Ph.D supervisor and also attached in other extension activities with the active support of the college.
- Minor Research Project has been completed by Dr. Mukti Ganguly, the Principal of Panihati Mahavidyalaya. Again, another teacher, Dr. Arindam Ghosh has under taken 1 (one) Minor Research Project which has just completed.
- One of our teacher attach in PG at Bhairab Ganguly College Study Centre under WBSU. Some others are also involved in PG teaching. Moreover, some of our teachers are persuing Ph.D, M.Phil. etc.
- The departments have taken initiative to hold departmental seminar and extension lecture. The system of self appraisal of faculties and appraisal of performance of the faculties by the students are in practice. Self appraisal of faculty is considered by the expert at the time of promotion to higher scale.
- College is now planning for interdisciplinary research project and multi-institutional research projects for near future and intended to develop infrastructural facilities to cater such initiatives by the teachers.

Infrastructure and Learning Resources

- The total land area is 0.58 acres and built up area 3044 sq. mt., including two building.
- The campus includes two complexes, the main building (for arts and commerce) and newly constructed Science Building.

- The college has adequate infrastructural facilities to run the 18 departments of which include 7 laboratory departments.
- A total of 20 classrooms and 16 laboratories of which few are commonly used as classroom/demonstration room cater the students need.
- Along with, Central Library, Students Canteen, Common rooms, Gymnasium, Guard rooms, Generator rooms etc with garden spaces is forming the campus.
- Power backup systems with Generators (total 60 KV), UPS and alternative power sources with solar panels are providing the electricity to run the college with regular power supply.
- For effective teaching-learning, several departments have ICT systems with centralized smart classroom, e-classroom, auditorium etc.
- College is well equipped with computers, software support system and internet facilities as required and planning to upgrade the facilities.

Student Support and Progression

- College always acts for students, College authority and teachers provide their support in different forms to facilitate them apart from academic and curricular aspects as already mentioned in previous sections.
- College arranges for stipends, free-ships and scholarships for SC/ST/OBC and any other financially weaker sections of the students, provides financial assistance and concession for economically weaker students.
- Moreover, wall magazines are published by each department.
- Relevant information are communicated to the teaching and non-teaching staff, students and other through prospectus, college website, notice display with the notice board and meeting with concerned section.
- The college has a cheap canteen, where the students can buy the food products at low cost.
- The student strength of our college is at present is about 1000. The drop out percentage is just about 20% (approx). In order to arrest the drop out percentage the college has provided fees concession to the economically backward and meritorious students.
- Remedial coaching classes have been arranged for slow learner students for the last couple of years. The Govt. of West Bengal has introduced “Kanyashree Prakalpa’ through which girl students get financial assistance from our State Govt. to pursue their education.
- The college has a well-functioning NSS unit under the leadership of WBSU which is participating in different programmes.
- Moreover, medical facilities are also provided to the students through Student Health Home. The percentage of success of our students in the university exam. is about 65% on an average over the past 7 years.
- We are still maintaining Grievances Redressal Cell and Sexual Harassment Cell as before. For this purpose a complain box has been hung outside of the Principal’s room.

Governance, Leadership and Management

- The college started and continued with the vision of expanding the horizon to offer options and opportunities to the community to higher education. However, with initial expansion vision modified for consolidating activities and centralizing administration for controlled growth of the institution.
- At the top of managerial hierarchy, we have the Governing Body. The G.B. formulates the policies which are implemented through lower and middle level of management.

- In the middle level of management we have various sub-committees, Bursar, Head of the department, Head clerk Accountant etc.
- In the lower level of management we have the teachers and general office staff.
- The executive head of our institution is Principal.
- The other academic and administrative bodies formed by Governing Body are Finance Sub-committee, Academic Sub-committee, Purchase and Maintenance Sub-committee, Building and various other Sub-committees to assist the college administration. Sub-committees have representatives from teachers, office and students as well as external members of Governing Body.
- IQAC has been formed to assist college administration for various activities.
- We have an active Teachers' Council which extend their co-operation to assist the management in different aspects. Picnics, get together and joint programmes have been done occasionally.
- The Students' Union of the college is an elected body which publishes an annual literary magazine under the guidance of a teacher of our institution on regular basis.
- We have an Alumni Association which provides constructive suggestion for the development and up gradation of the college.
- The main source of revenue of the college is State Govt. Grant, UGC Grant, MLA and MP Grant & student tuition fees.
- Every year a budget estimate is prepared by the accounts department with the assistance of bursar and is placed before the Governing Body to control expenses.
- Some faculties and non-teaching staff are assigned with some additional administrative work so as to run the college smoothly.

Institutional Values and Best Practices

- College is using solar energy for supplementing the regular power consumption for some particular areas and planning to expand the limit for future.
- College is facilitating departmental seminars on contemporary and relevant issues to expand the horizon of knowledge of both teachers and students.
- An organized information setup is now developing in the college for accessing books with digitalization of library, journals through INFLIBNET, introduction of OPAC and providing information about employment opportunity to students.
- Use of biometric machine, installation of software for taking feedback and analysing it from different sectors of stakeholders etc. are taken into practice.
- College is participating into different extension and social activities through NSS and other bodies to mark its contribution in local societies.
- College has successfully arranged to train students through NSDC to enable them for employment.

4. Quality Indicator Framework(QIF)

Criterion 1 - Curricular Aspects

1.1 Curricular Planning and Implementation

1.1.1 The institution ensures effective curriculum delivery through a well planned and documented process

Response:

Stage I :

A meeting is held in each department towards the end of the each academic session to finalize the course-allocation for the next year. Based on the expertise of individual teachers, the syllabus is allotted to them by the Head of the Department. Discussions are held on the methodologies that are to be followed and in particular on different approaches to the curriculum.

Stage II :

All departments draft their own time-table to check the feasibility of delivering the allotted curriculum by calculating the number of lectures/practical classes available in a particular term.

Stage III: Teachers are then required to submit a teaching plan based on the number of days available for effective teaching of the syllabi and also the number of days required for conducting of internal examinations. The members of the routine sub-committee draft a routine and circulate it among the teachers at the beginning of each academic session to help them to acquaint with the entire process.

At the end of every academic session, teachers are required to submit a lesson diary to the Head of the Institution & IQAC to monitor the feedback of the teaching-learning process.

The Institution follows the curriculum of the affiliating University (WBSU) and ensures the overall development of the students through the following activities and facilities:

- Academic Calendar and Year Planner are prepared well in advance and steps are taken to ensure effective execution of the academic programs.
- Monthly attendance, scheduled teaching plan, regular assignments, unit tests, and remedial measures are monitored periodically by the mentors.
- Extensive support is given to each department to organize extension lectures, seminars, workshops, etc.
- The college library is constantly updated with latest books, magazines, and journals which cater to the educational needs of the students and teachers. Books and journals of departmental libraries help for quick and easy access.
- Special classes are arranged for slow learners.
- Equipped laboratories, Digital Library, seminar halls, auditorium, and public address system for effective curriculum delivery are part of the infrastructure.
- Students participate in various industrial & field visits periodically to keep themselves abreast of the latest developments in their respective fields.

1.3 Curriculum Enrichment

1.3.1 Institution integrates cross- cutting issues relevant to Gender, Environment and Sustainability, Human Values and Professional Ethics into the Curriculum

Response:

The College faculty is sensitive to the various social issues and makes every effort to sensitize the students in this regard. There are specific committees that make a collective effort to sensitize the students on areas of concern like gender equality, human rights, environmental issues, etc. Departments organize seminars/ workshops/ special lectures to integrate these courses.

Gender Sensitivity:

- The curricula of different departments contain components or topics on gender sensitivity.
- Various committees promote gender equality through different programmes.

Environment and Sustainability:

- Environmental education is a part of the curriculum of Environmental Studies for undergraduate students.
- The curricula of different departments contain components or topics on environment and sustainability as reflected in the document attached herewith.
- The College promotes green practices through workshops, seminars, lectures etc.
- Solar panel and LED bulbs in the college are environment-friendly initiatives.
- NSS also promotes environmental protection through various activities.

2.2 Catering to Student Diversity

2.2.1 The institution assesses the learning levels of the students, after admission and organises special programs for advanced learners and slow learners

Response:

SLOW LEARNERS: Remedial coaching classes have been held over the years especially for the slow learners and backward learners. Students are encouraged to contact their concerned departmental teachers freely to discuss their problems. The teachers identify the slow learners and backward learners to bridge the knowledge gap. To cope up with their programme they adopt various kinds of innovative methods of teaching like student-teacher interaction, surprise tests, demonstrations, providing notes and conducting discussions, using audio-visual aids, etc.

ADVANCED LEARNERS: Advanced learners are also identified at the beginning of each academic session through surprise tests in the classroom and student seminars. The advanced learners may freely consult their concerned department for reference books, journals, advanced level notes. Guidance for various advanced level courses and avenues are also made available to them. The advanced learners are given priority to present papers in the students' seminars organized by the concerned departments. Experience tells us that such advanced learners are much more likely to opt for professional courses and academic courses in the future.

Individual care is given to each and every student by our teachers. They are more willing to help students overcome their problems and are always available to help them out in whatever way they can. This close student-teacher bond helps in ensuring mutual respect and trust among teachers and students. As a result, students understand the value of good behavior and never misbehave with teachers either inside or outside the classroom. Students are encouraged to maintain a diary on a daily basis to record classroom teaching and home tasks assigned by teachers. Apart from this, our teachers always try to use lucid language and simple practice-based examples to help them understand their subjects.

2.3 Teaching- Learning Process

2.3.1 Student centric methods, such as experiential learning, participative learning and problem solving methodologies are used for enhancing learning experiences

Response:

Experiential Learning:

Generally speaking, experiential learning is the process of learning through experience; it is more specifically defined as learning through reflection of practical application. Students are always encouraged to participate in departmental seminars, field trips, field works and curriculum-based projects to acquire various kinds of knowledge and experience. These are outside their traditional academic classroom teaching. Experiential learning is based on four main elements which operate in a continuous cycle during the learning experience:

- Concrete experience
- Reflective experience
- Abstract conceptualization
- Active experimentation

Participative Learning:

This model is one of the most popular teaching-and-learning methods where teachers learn along with their students. Its processes and outcomes are the result of group effort involving teachers and students. This method of teaching develops a closer student-teacher relationship. Under this method of teaching, students are encouraged to be independent thinkers. Through NSS the students gain a deeper understanding of the meaning of civic responsibility and prepare themselves for serving the community. Moreover, debates and quiz competitions are also arranged by the institution where the students express their talent writing skills in diverse fields. They are also encouraged to participate in publishing wall magazines.

Problem-solving Methodologies:

Problem solving is a process which involves using our pre-existing knowledge to discover what we do not know. It involves overcoming obstacles by generating hypotheses, testing predictions and arriving at satisfactory solutions.

Students are encouraged to understand the nature of problems and their related goals; they are also encouraged to frame problems in their own words, which can then be clarified by the teachers. Frequently, teachers help their students in solving their academic problems and critical problems. The teachers counsel the students and provide them with the necessary guidance in order to help them formulate and structure the problems in their respective fields.

2.3.4 Innovation and creativity in teaching-learning

Response:

To aid and improve the teaching-learning process, frequent use of ICT is made. Faculty members utilize laptops and LCD projectors in classrooms to make learning more appealing to the students. The digital technologies use in the classroom is supplemented by steady Wi-Fi facilities. The audio-visual facilities make it easier for students to comprehend and appreciate the subjects better.

Student seminars are regularly held in order to keep students aware about recent developments in their respective fields. They are encouraged to develop an aptitude in research and academic presentation. Sometimes, teachers divide the class into several groups and assign each group a topic. This helps the students develop the ability to work as part of a team. The structure of this process is as follows: Assignment – Team work – Paper Presentation.

Some departments involve students in field work and the works assigned there are primarily from their syllabi. Some of these works demand students' innovation, understanding and representation of real data in proper and logical ways, many of these studies and projects are real representation of community-related issues with implications of local biodiversity and ecology. These processes generate enthusiasm and interest to innovate and improvise among students.

Another important innovative procedure used in the college is the system of proctors. Proctors are the advanced students of the class who help other students to learn. Often there are many students in a class who are slow learners and may need help. The students who are relatively more meritorious are engaged in the process of teaching,. This is done on a rotational basis, that is, all students take turn in helping each other understand concepts and ideas depending upon their level of understanding. This is a participative form of learning which is directed at making education more exciting, effective and enjoyable. This also ensures greater number of students attending classes on a regular basis, and eventually reduces drop-out rates.

The teachers also undertake tutorial classes to facilitate students' performance. Personal care taken by the teachers discourages private tuitions. Tutorial classes are allotted in the master routine to ensure that students benefit from the tutorial system on a regular basis.

Departmental quizzes and debates are frequently held by departments to encourage learning among students.

The college maintains a repository of previous years' question papers which the students are encouraged to access and solve in order to prepare themselves better for college and university examinations. Evaluation is carried out through engaging the students develop research acumen and provides the necessary exposure to research methodologies at an early level. Educational tours and excursions are organized by some departments to relevant places. Special lectures are also organized on a timely basis.

2.5 Evaluation Process and Reforms

2.5.1 Reforms in Continuous Internal Evaluation(CIE) system at the institutional level

Response:

Our institution ensures a constant and consistent evaluative process through tests, seminars, projects at frequent and regular intervals. The progress of every single student is monitored and recorded. Tests are conducted in order to gauge the students' comprehension and grasp of the topics taught in class, and in some cases, the empirical information gathered from field trips. The questions are framed in such a way that they test the students' aptitude in the most accurate way possible. These tests have a two-fold objective: they are carried out in order to ensure that the students have gained a thorough and detailed knowledge of the subjects taught in the curricula; and to help them prepare rigorously for the university exams at the end of each semester. Class tests are conducted by each department regularly after allotted portions of the syllabus have been covered by the teachers. Midterm examination is conducted centrally and the exam results are published soon after. Innovations have been brought about in the evaluative process. As part of their internal assessment, the students are sometimes asked to prepare project reports on assigned topics; they are also asked sometimes to prepare seminar papers on which they are then graded. Our institution is equipped with ICT facilities and the students avail this while making presentations. The teachers provide them with the necessary guidance in this regard, especially in preparing PPTs, research posters and other graphical demonstrations. In order to make the teaching-learning process more interactive, our institution arranges group-discussions, debates and brainstorming sessions as part of the evaluative procedure. Students are encouraged to engage themselves, albeit at an elementary level, with research activities, thereby fostering an intellectual acumen for higher academic pursuits.

2.5.2 Mechanism of internal assessment is transparent and robust in terms of frequency and variety

Response:

The process of internal assessment is meticulously carried out by the teachers and it is ensured that every student is evaluated with considerable attention and care. As far as the department-specific modes of evaluations are concerned, discussion sessions are held after the tests/seminars/project submissions/ presentations, where teachers meet students to discuss their performances and advice them on how to improve their academic output. The students are explained the logic and the nitty-gritty of how they have been graded so that their chances of faring better in the subsequent exams are increased. The mechanism of internal assessment involves setting exam dates/seminar presentation dates/ project submission deadlines, collecting, arranging and allotting students' output for evaluation to teachers of the departments and finally, evaluating them and publishing the results. Utmost transparency and efficiency is maintained in the whole process. Under the new CBCS curriculum, a certain component of the syllabus is supposed to be evaluated and submitted by the colleges to their affiliating university. The internal assessment marks/grades that the institution sends to the university are not revealed to the students. However, their individual performances are discussed and their merits and demerits highlighted.

In order to maintain transparency and accessibility of information related to examinations, all the immediate stakeholders are taken into consideration. One of the ways in which this is accomplished is by having Parent-Teacher meetings in the presence of the students, at regular intervals. The students' performance and attendance are the primary issues that are discussed in these meetings. This makes the evaluations process more transparent.

2.5.3 Mechanism to deal with examination related grievances is transparent, time-bound and efficient

Response:

In order to address examination related grievances, if any, the institution has adopted two strategies:

1. The immediate stakeholders, namely the students and the guardians, are given the provision of contacting the department concerned within the office hours. The teaching faculty are available within the office hours and they try their level-best to listen to and redress the grievances of the students and the guardians, related to examinations.
2. Guardian-Teacher meetings are regularly held, where guardians are informed about their wards' performances, attendances and grades. Total clarity is maintained by the teachers through maintaining a meticulous system of records of individual students related to their academic (and also co-curricular) activities.

2.5.4 The institution adheres to the academic calendar for the conduct of CIE

Response:

Our institution closely follows the academic calendar prescribed by the West Bengal State University and organises its curricula and schedules in accordance with it. The academic calendar is prepared in advance before the commencement of undergraduate courses every semester and it is composed of declaration regarding tentative semestral exam schedules, internal assessments and class tests, schedules of seminars and project works. Course allocation is made well in advance so that the teachers get enough time to prepare, improvise and develop teaching methodologies. Faculty members are entrusted with the responsibility of preparing teaching plan for theory and practical components of the curricula. The academic calendar serves as bedrock for various teaching-learning plans prepared before each semester starts. Teaching plan comprises time slots/durations/number of classes set for portions of the syllabus, bibliography, description/summary of lectures, references and methods (ICT, Classroom, etc.) to be adopted by the teachers concerned.

2.6 Student Performance and Learning Outcomes

2.6.1 Program outcomes, program specific outcomes and course outcomes for all programs offered by the Institution are stated and displayed on website and communicated to teachers and students

Response:

Students opting for a subject under The Bachelor of Arts (B.A.) are required to study six semesters spread out evenly over a period of three years. The B.A. offers students a wide array of disciplinary and interdisciplinary studies to choose from. The courses primarily focus on the various aspects of human communication, culture and achievements in social sciences and media studies. Generally speaking, arts degrees emphasize on improving a student's knowledge and the ability to think critically within a diverse range of disciplines such as literature, philosophy, political science, history, psychology, sociology, economics, etc. It is one of the aims of the B.A. course to give students a strong foundation in the subjects they have opted to study and also help them discover the ways in which they can apply the knowledge they have gathered; help them develop the skills required to carry out effective and smart communication, assist them in honing their aptitude to work alone as well as in collaborations and their skills to do work that is relevant across geographical, disciplinary, social and cultural margins; and help them understand the worth of empathy, moral behaviour, independent thinking and enduring values.

The Bachelor of Science (B.Sc) comprises six semesters and requires three years of full-time. Apart from the promising career prospects that this course makes available to the students opting it, student get the opportunity to have a strong foundation whereupon their next levels of studies and work can be built. It gives attention to granting opportunities to students to showcase their creativity, intellectual acumen, spirit of inquiry by introducing a variety of scientific issues and problems and encourages taking rational, analytical, problem-solving approaches to unfamiliar and challenging questions. The necessary tools are provided to the students to inspect issues so that they are able to identify a methodical approach in their analyses. Teamwork and collaborative approach are encouraged in these pursuits.

The Bachelor of Commerce (B.Com) consists of six semesters and it requires three years of full- time study. The aim of this course is to give students an exposure to the different modes of analysis and skills that are required to understand and contribute to the contemporary world of economics and business; to train them for successive graduate studies by introducing them to major theories and help them accomplish higher goals in their professional fields by inculcating within them organizational behaviour. For instance, the Economics course focuses on the knowledge of basic mathematical and statistical skills and therefore Economics graduates are invariably knowledgeable in domestic and international economic scenarios. They are kept abreast of the latest national and international debates and discourses on monetary, commercial and business issues. As a result, they excel later if they choose a career in accounting or any career in the diverse sectors of business communities.

The details regarding the Course Outcomes and Programme Outcomes of individual disciplines are provided on the college website.

2.6.2 Attainment of program outcomes, program specific outcomes and course outcomes are evaluated by the institution

Response:

The institution ensures that the evaluative process adheres to the rules and regulations laid down by the University. The syllabi are implemented with dexterity and with considerable amount of innovativeness in order to give the students greater understanding of and expertise in their respective subjects. The University and the academic committees of the college oversee and monitor the correct implementation of the syllabi and the incorporation of changes, if any, to the curriculum.

While implementing the syllabi and carrying out curricular activities, it is taken care that students are exposed to the major research methods of their respective disciplines. By the time each course is completed the students often develop ability and the necessary skills to plan and carry out research within a specific (and sometimes related) discipline(s).

Course outcomes categorize the essential components that constitute the programme and these include the incremental knowledge and abilities that students gradually develop while attending the programme. Course outcomes are, of course, closely associated with – but naturally much more constricted than –program outcomes.

Students of all disciplines are encouraged to participate in conferences and publish to effectively attain the Course Outcomes and Programme Outcomes. Continuous assessment of students is a prerequisite for the fulfilment of Course Outcomes and Programme Outcomes. An internal college examination committee monitors and ensures efficient implementation of the assessment structures. This is accomplished by carrying out unit tests, field surveys, educational tours, practical work, seminars, symposiums etc. moreover, our institution also endeavours to achieve the course outcomes and programme outcomes by performing several N.S.S. activities, cultural programmes, career counselling sessions, personality development programmes, and communication skills enhancement workshops, community outreach programmes, organization of special lectures, health awareness programmes, skill development programmes, sports activities, etc. Students are encouraged to showcase their creativity by inviting their participation in preparing wall magazines. The institution has introduced career-oriented courses in view of attaining the COs and POs.

Criterion 4 - Infrastructure and Learning Resources

4.1 Physical Facilities

4.1.1 The institution has adequate facilities for teaching- learning. viz., classrooms, laboratories, computing equipment, etc.

Response:

The college has adequate facilities in relative terms but not in physical terms. At present, the college has two buildings consisting of fully functional 43 classrooms (25 in Main Building and 18 in Science Building) including 14 laboratories (out of these, there are 7 fully equipped classrooms with LCD Projectors. Others departments organize their seminar presentations centrally in the digital and virtual classrooms). There are 15 cubicles, 1 auditorium, 2 office rooms, 2 store rooms, 1 Smart class room,1 Virtual class room, 1 spacious Central library and 2 common rooms. Our auditorium can accommodate 300 students and has a set-up of cordless microphones along with sound systems, sufficient facilities of ceiling fans, lights and exhaust fans. The college has upgraded one of its class rooms with high end interactive digital smart board, desktop computer, laptop and PA system with Wi-Fi facilities. Moreover, one class room has also been upgraded with virtual facilities for the purpose of teaching-learning and conducting seminar presentation. The College has to search for a new land area for second campus, because the super build doesn't permit us to make further construction. Our Laboratory is well equipped with modern equipments and other facilities. The two of our class rooms are ICT enable smart class rooms including one virtual class rooms. There are approximately 36 computers available for the use of the students for their academic purpose. The college along with its limited resources and capacity provides the students with every facility which are required for academic purposes.

Till today, the methods of teaching adopted by the college are traditional chalk-duster lecture method along with innovative digital mode and student-teacher interaction mode. Digital mode includes use of digital smart board, portable projector and virtual mode.

The Details of the Infrastructure of the college are detailed below.

4.4.2 There are established systems and procedures for maintaining and utilizing physical, academic and support facilities - laboratory, library, sports complex, computers, classrooms etc.

Response:

There is a mechanism in the college to look after the repairs and maintenance affairs pertaining to the infrastructure facilities and equipment of the college.

Building Infrastructure:

As a Government aided college, effort has always been made to provide adequate and secured space for equipments and tools. We have a building sub-committee to look after the maintenance, repairs and constructional work pertaining to our college buildings. Moreover, we have also a separate maintenance committee to look after physical infrastructure like water supply, power supply, gas supply etc. All these works have been done through web tender/e-tender system as per our Governing Body resolution. The members of building and maintenance sub-committee always watching the maintenance and up gradation work related to civil and electrical work to justify the work done by the contractors.

However, all minor faults are attended and repaired by hired technicians and daily-wage based carpenters etc.

Moreover the college has sound less automatic generator system to provide uninterrupted power supply. The details of expenditure on building renovation, construction and repairs and maintenance work are shown with the help of the following table:

YEAR	PARTICULARS	AMOUNT

Furniture and Other allied Items:

The members of maintenance department look after the maintenance and repair work of furniture and fixtures and other physical infrastructure. They collect the information pertaining to repairs and maintenance of the said items and prepare report and bring to the notice of the college authority and make them understand the needs of repairs work and certifies after the work has been done. In the year 2014-15 the college has installed public address system in each floor of the main building. During this year 60 new benches, 5 platforms and few chairs have been made by the college. The details expenditure on furniture making and repair works on furniture are shown with the help of the following table.

2017-18	PURCHASE OF SUPREME CHAIRS	98,300

Laboratory Equipments and Machineries:

All the laboratory based department maintain their stock registrar on regular basis for keeping records of their equipments, chemicals, glassware, microscope, balance and any other equipments used by the laboratory department.

It is usual practice to maintain dead stock registrar for keeping record of all those equipments and machineries which are presently non-functional state.

The college has entered into an agreement for AMC pertaining to few equipment and regarding others repairs and maintenance work have been done as when need is arise. Usually, the laboratories equipments are maintained at the departmental level by the staff or through hired technicians annually and /or when needs are arising.

Departments like Zoology and Botany maintain records of their specimen which are needed at the time of doing laboratory experimental work.

Library:

Over the past five years our Central Library has upgraded significantly. Library software KOHA has been installed in the year 2016, version 3.14.06.000. Since 2016 the college has taken membership of N-List for the benefits of the faculty and students so, that they can enrich themselves. Through N-List we got the availability of more than 30 lakhs journal. The Central Library is also lending books to the departmental library for the benefits of the department.

5.3.2 Presence of an active Student Council & representation of students on academic & administrative bodies/committees of the institution

Response:

Students' representatives are an indispensible member of academic and administrative bodies of the College such as Governing Body, Academic sub-committee, and IQAC. Their major roles in different functions of the college are student support, services and engagement in academic and administrative work. Their contribution to the quality assurance in higher education i.e. quality of teaching, learning, service system and support for students.

Students involvement in academic activities:

- Support the students, participation in institutional academic decision as student union representative.
- SR addresses and represents students 'views and grievances and conveys the same at the meeting for discussion and amicable solution.
- Provides support and assistance to the students and office staff for filling up examination form, admission form and registration form and counseling.
- Provides valuable informal feedback regarding curriculum, teaching learning and evaluation process.
- Supports the institution values by developing and imposing students' standards.
- Provides support to the teaching staff to organize the seminar, conference and workshops at national level, state level etc.
- SR makes the students aware about various extension activities such as departmental journal, as well as departmental wall magazines and so on. SR always encourages the students to participate to such extension activities.
- SR also extends his/her cooperation to the teaching staff to organize the departmental seminar and other co-curricular activities of each and every department as per the college budget allocation.

Other Activities:

- The SR always undertook a leadership role in crisis situation and at student's unrest and conflicts.
- NSS volunteers from different disciplineare actively participate in the community enrich programmes like Cleanness programme inside and outside the college, make the college campus as clean and plastic free campus and stress the importance maintaining the personal health, hygiene, blood donation camp and various awareness programme like cancer awareness programme, etc. The SR always encourage the students to participate in the existing students oriented programme of the college like NSS

- The SR along with his/her peers organizes the Saraswati Puja in the college campus and is fully responsible for the smooth execution of various puja related aspect.
- The SR is also responsible for the conduct of the college annual sports along with the college authority. He/she has the responsibility to coordinate the different sports event and activities and assist the responsible teacher in making the event success.

5.4 Alumni Engagement

5.4.1 The Alumni Association/Chapters (registered and functional) contributes significantly to the development of the institution through financial and non financial means during the last five years

Response:

Well, though the college doesn't have a registered Alumni Association but still it likes to maintain interaction with its students even after they leave the college for higher studies through an active and vibrant Alumni Association. The association is duly constituted with the former pass out as well as recently pass out students of this mahavidyalaya. The association arouses among its members a feeling of belonging, camaraderie and warmth, essential for the success of the institution. The Alumni has taken several important steps towards initiating many useful activities for the development of the institution. Not only that, time to time had they also put forward their important suggestions towards the development of the institution. Few of their activities and suggestions are stated below:

- During the year 2016-2017 the members of the alumni association had unanimously taken a decision to approach the principal for initiating a skill development programme in the college for the career upliftment of the students as well as the people of nearby locality.
- Since 2016-2017, the Alumni association organized a delightful programme on International Language Day (Popularly known as Vasha Dibosh) with the collaboration of the college teaching staff as well as the present students of the mahavidyalaya. Such programme provides a platform for the cultural and internal development of the participants as well as of the viewers. At present, such programme becomes our usual practice.
- Since 2014-2015, the Alumni association organized Blood donation camp at the college premises with the collaboration of the teaching and non-teaching staff as well as the present students to create awareness towards donating blood for the nation. Blood is the most precious gift that anybody can give to another person to save a life or even several if your blood is separated into its components –red cells, platelets and plasma- which can be used individually for patients with specific conditions. Moreover it will also helps the donors by lowering their cholesterol level, increasing the production of new blood cells, maintaining proper iron level, even lowering the risk of cancer.
- Since 2015- 2016 and onwards the Alumni Association Organized Vijaya Sammilaini programmes at the college premises with the help of both teaching and non-teaching staff as well as the students of the mahavidyalaya. Such programme provides the platform to bring out the talent for the future and it also create socio-cultural development of the participants as well as the viewers.
- During the year 2017-2018, the Alumni approached the institution to introduce new honours course on Food & Nutrition because local students like to opt this subject but they have to travel long to admit in such program. Moreover, there is sufficient demand for this subject.

The teachers and students performed together with great earnestness and sincerity to reach out the college alumni at home and abroad and to involve them not only in cultural activities but also socially meaningful and relevant work which aims to develop not only the alumni but the mahavidyalaya as well.

- To provide training for skill development to students and local youth.
- Overall, to upgrade the education environment with modernized approaches and avenues to spread the effective education with social values.

The governing body of the college always shows their positive attitude towards the development and enrichment of the college. The principal along with his teaching and non-teaching brigade implement the decisions and policies of the governing body of the college.

The Principal always communicates with her staff to ensure that they are not facing in problem while they executing their work. The IQAC, teacher council and the members of academic sub-committee are meet time to time to evaluate and discuss the various course of action and further implement important academic and co-curricular activities of the college.

Moreover, the college always try to adhere the academic calendar of the college to accomplish its objectives.

It is our usual practice to conduct parent-teacher meetings at regular interval to discuss about the overall progress of the students. They also recommend us various constructive suggestions for the academic development of the college. They are considered as one of the valuable stakeholder of the institution.

The college has taken step to organize the national level, state level as well as departmental seminars on a regular basis. The management also ensures welfare in the form extending puja advance to the full time non-teaching staff and of the casual ad hock staff through annual salary increment, puja bonus and provision for leave when necessary. Helping the poor and needy students by granting students free ship and some sometime provide additional financial assistance through teachers 'council of the college.

6.1.2 The institution practices decentralization and participative management

Response:

Well, the college has generally followed the practices of decentralization since its inception on regular basis as per the policy framed by the governing body of the college. In response to such policy both teaching and non-teaching members, government nominee, university nominee and student union's representative are adequately represented in the governing body of the college and their opinions are pursuing while making and implementing of different academic, administrative and financial policies.

Apart from governing body meeting, there are various sub-committees like finance sub-committee, building and maintenance sub-committee, purchase sub-committee, Academic sub-committee, IQAC, Provident fund sub-committee, Examination committee, routine committee, Admission committee, Student support and progression committee, Canteen committee etc. Meeting of these committees are held on regular basis which helps to formulate and implement strategic plans for the institution. Principal by virtue of the position is the ex-officio chairperson of all the committees. Principal as the ex-officio secretary of the Governing Body reports the plans and policies formulated by the committees at the G.B. meeting for approval and finally it is implemented.

The responsibilities of the teaching and non-teaching staff are clearly defined and communicated through face to face conversation in the meeting as well through notifications.

One instance can be considered to show the practice of decentralization and participative management in the college. Our Provident Fund committee is strictly adhering to with the rules and regulations of the C S Branch of the Education Department of the State Government. The management of such committee is vested with the governing body of the college. Every whole time teaching and non-teaching staff are the subscriber of the fund. Though the principal of the college is the nodal officer of the fund, one whole time teacher is elected as the convenor of the committee. The said committee is constituted with five whole time staff out of which two of them are the members of the governing body. One Office staff assists the principal and the convenor to carry out the function of the committee. When any of the full time staff want to applies for advance/non-refundable withdrawals from their provident fund account in the prescribed format, the committee meet promptly and after due consideration sanctions the amount.

6.2 Strategy Development and Deployment

6.2.1 Perspective/Strategic plan and Deployment documents are available in the institution

Response:

Strategy: Digitized student's records and online admission process.

Plan of Action: Continuing with the online admission system to maintain transparency in the admission process.

1. To identify the requirements of every department for the academic session.
2. To choose the appropriate admission system provider through e- tendering process.
3. To implement the decision regarding installation of system software optimizes the efficiency through real time monitoring.

As per Government order, the college started its online admission process since the academic session 2015-16. The on line admission process starts every year after the publication of Higher Secondary (i.e., class XII) results and will continue as per the guidelines of the Parent University. Moreover the college has constituted separate admission committee under the leadership of the head of the institution to co-ordinate the admission process. The departmental teachers are very much active and extend their hands to make the admission process fruitful.

Lots of responsibility have to be undertaken in the ways of preparing eco-friendly subjects combinations, cut off marks as per University norms.

6.2.2 Organizational structure of the institution including governing body, administrative setup, and functions of various bodies, service rules, procedures, recruitment, promotional policies as well as grievance redressal mechanism

Response:

The head of the institution determines for giving priority to any of the above mentioned elements so that the educational administration management efficiency could be ascertained. As per discussion and resolutions adopted by different sub-committees and recommending bodies. The principal recommends and forwards the matter for approval of any claims to the governing body. If the proposal is concerned under the able guidance of the principal. The Governing Body is the apex body relating to decision making process and works in close co-operation with the principal & secretary to regulate and maintain a congenial and academic environment required for this purpose. As head of the institution the principal provides leadership in creating a working environment and implements the government policies. She is the element in developing the organizational structure, formulating and implementing the strategy of development through the college development committee and governing body. In all these tasks, the teacher's council, the head of the departments and also the non-teaching staff assist and advise. The administration has opted a decentralized mode for smooth and effective functioning.

6.2.4 Effectiveness of various bodies/cells/committees is evident through minutes of meetings and implementation of their resolutions

Response:

The college has a number of sub-committee to assist in its smooth functioning. Amongst them some are major committees which are mandatory and a pillar to the growth and development of the college. All of the committees are effective and functioning fully. Yet here is one example presented below through the minutes of meetings and implementation of their resolutions of some of the aforementioned committees. Purchase committee is a very important committee which is acting regularly for purchasing the college requirements following the purchase rules through some steps. Initially demands from college authority or departments has been placed to purchase committee and after initial approval of this committee they produce budget estimation for the same to Finance Committee. With Finance Committee approval the advertisement for tendering has been published as per the purchase policy of state Higher Education Council. Then on submitted quotations a compare list has been prepared by the committee and in most cases the lowest bidder has been selected if there is no oher technical restrains. On that selection purchase order has been issued to the selected vender or company. After the supply of the items with delivery challan receipt the payment procedure has been initiated by the acconts department.

6.3 Faculty Empowerment Strategies

6.3.1 The institution has effective welfare measures for teaching and non-teaching staff

Response:

The Institution has various effective welfare measures for the teaching and non-teaching staff. Some of them are stated below:

1. Festival advance for non-teaching staff.
2. Ex-gratia for non-teaching staff.
3. Festival bonus for casual non-teaching staff.
4. Proper disbursement of governmental welfare schemes to the employees.
5. Sanction of loan without interest to the whole time teaching and non-teaching staff against their application.
6. Faculty members are encouraged in conducting minor as well as major research project works, participating in national and international level seminars, workshops, and Ph.ds course works and so on.
7. Approval of the application with NOC of the whole time teaching staff (substantive post-holders) for attending orientation programme, refresher courses conducted by the various academic staff college for their enrichment.
8. They are also encouraged to perform their duties as the BOS members of the West Bengal State University, as head examiners, examiners, scrutinizer, paper setters, and moderators and so on.
9. The non-teaching staff is provided with computer training and hands on interactive session with software such as COSA, E-Bantan, E-Pradhan etc., for preparation of salary bill keeping accounts, student's data and various functions of the office.
10. Under the new cashless health scheme, even families of employees have been brought under health insurance scheme.
11. Health camp is organized by the college from time to time monitor the health condition of teaching and non-teaching staff.
12. The college authority provides opportunities to the employees to enjoy child care leave, medical leave, and maternity leave and so on.

6.3.5 Institution has Performance Appraisal System for teaching and non-teaching staff

Response:

The institution maintains daily self-appraisal system in which each teacher keeps a record of attendance. Classes allotted and taken and other academic as well as administrative activities done inside and outside college. It takes into account of the teacher’s arrival and departure as per the government norms.

- Each teacher submits self-appraisal reports for each academic session.
- The authority makes an assessment of these feedback forms and accordingly appraises the teachers about the outcome and communicated to the appropriate stakeholders the necessary steps to be adopted for overall improvement of the academic atmosphere.
- CAS for teacher promotion have been followed the UGC format and the format prescribed by the Higher Education Department, Government ofWest Bengal'
- For Non-teaching staff UGC regulated career advancement scheme is not applicable. They are subject to promotion in their respective fields after a period of service not less them 10 years. They may however, sit for exams conducted by the State Government from time to time and be subject to an immediate promotion if they qualify in the said exams.

6.4 Financial Management and Resource Mobilization

6.4.1 Institution conducts internal and external financial audits regularly

Response:

- The college has a mechanism for internal audit done by the finance committee. Competent auditor is appointed by the governing body for the internal audit.
- The external audit is carried out by a government auditor as per provisions of the West Bengal Government Rules and Calcutta University Act every year. The Governing Body contracts the authorized charted accountant of the government who along with his conducts external audit regularly.
- The external audit is up to date. It has been completed up to session 2016-17 from the inception of the college. The process of auditing of 2017-18 along with is in progress. There were no major objectives raised by the auditor so far.

6.4.3 Institutional strategies for mobilisation of funds and the optimal utilisation of resources

Response:

- Fees/dues from the students are the major sources of institutional receipts. 95% of the deficit grant-in-aid scheme and various grants under the UGC schemes are other sources of receipts.
- The college sends proposals for additional grants to the University Grant Commission (UGC) and State Government to meet expenses for construction. Repairs and renovation of the college building and premises.
- The college moderates students fee structure every year in order to procure additional funding. Other than the routine government and UGC grants, the institution has been able to secure additional funding from various agencies such as MLA Fund, MP- Land Fund.
- The college has to follow the financial rules of the Govt. of West Bengal. A number of committees consisting of teaching and non-teaching staff are constituted to ensure purchase of equipments, books and furniture and also construction of building. Utilization of resources are also monitored effective by these committees such as Purchase Sub-committee, Building Sub-committee, Library Sub-committee and Internal quality Assurance Cell,. Other significant mechanism is that appropriate tendering process is ensured to maintain fairness in purchase related matters.
- Financial resources are received directly through the bank accounts and the records of purchase, bill and cheque registers, stock books, scholarship registers showing receipts and disbursements are maintained and regularly updated.
- The Governing Body recommends proposals for the effective utilization of financial resources. The whole process of fund allocation and management is supervised by the principal. Auditing is done periodically. And stipulations are met.
- The deficit is managed by the governing body by taking administrative decision on case to case merit basis. Minor deficit generally made up by surplus amount in any other hand. However, for major deficit, if any, the governing body of the college approaches the appropriate authorities of the government for necessary grant.

6.5 Internal Quality Assurance System

6.5.1 Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) has contributed significantly for institutionalizing the quality assurance strategies and processes

Response:

Well, IQAC has taken holistic approach towards the development of teaching-learning process and suggested the adoption of innovative method of teaching –learning method along with the traditional chalk and talk method to increase the interest of the students regarding class rooms teaching. The college has already made two revolutionary steps regarding introduction of innovative practice e.g. Upgradation one class room into digital class room and there is another class room which are up graded as virtual class room. Most of our teachers used these innovative practices as their way of teaching learning. Few departments have also used projectors as the means of their teaching learning.

Example No. 1: Upgradation of Digital Class Room

As per the proposal of IQAC our Digital class room has been renovated by installing ICT enable digital smart board with all allied modern facilities in the year 2011 for the benefits of students as well as for conducting seminar, conference etc. The IQAC has taken sensitive and enthusiastic approach towards the development of innovative practices as a method of teaching learning. Moreover, two more digital smart board have also been installed in two lab based departments, viz, Geography and Zoology. It facilitates both the teachers and students to make the teaching-learning process more fruitful.

Example No. 2: Virtual Room

As per the proposal of IQAC and with the assistance of W.B Government fund, the college has upgraded one class room into Virtual Class room during the year 2015-16. Though the Virtual class room is used for seminar presentation but in spite of that the said class room is also used for class room teaching. The head of the institution always encourage her teaching staff to use more the audio visual method as a part of their teaching learning process to create interest about the lesson and enable them to inculcate in their mind easily. Advanced technology not only enhances the learning experience but also give an interesting platform to the teachers. Information is easy to grab with visual effects and dynamic perspective. This kind of class room provides an interactive environment which results in more transparency between teachers and students. So, that the students can easily express through touching, writing and drawing.

6.5.5 Incremental improvements made during the preceding five years (in case of first cycle) Post accreditation quality initiatives (second and subsequent cycles)

Response:

Panihati Mahavidyalaya was accredited with B grade (CGPA 2.11) in the year 2008 by NAAC. The visited Peer Team put forward few valuable recommendations for the overall academic upliftment of the mahavidyalaya, most of which we are able to implement. The rest that we were unable to execute were due to space crunch and financial resistance. In spite of that the college has completed the construction of five storied Science Building. Due to such step the space constraint has been reduced to some extent. Moreover, we have approached the municipality and local MLA and MP for helping us in searching vacant land, so that we can build up our second campus. If such thing happens, we believe that our space crisis is met with and there shall be no holding back.

Meanwhile, based on NAAC recommendations we have introduced 5 Honours courses and 3 General courses. Honours have been opened in Physics, Education, Sanskrit, Computer Science, and Chemistry, 3 General courses have been opened in Sanskrit, Food & Nutrition and Journalism and Mass Communication. 3 New Departments have been opened (Sanskrit, Food and Nutrition and Journalism and Mass Communication). Time span of college working hours has been revised from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. to 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. as per advise. Interactive teaching-learning process have been improved as per advise. Free internet facility for teachers and students has been made available with the aid of UGC. Library has been fully computerized and E-resources are also available to all stakeholders of the college. A large number of books have been purchased with the assistance of UGC and self fund.

Remedial teaching to decrease drop outs and communication skills have been introduced with the assistance of UGC.

The recommendation for promoting research work has been started. Two teachers have already completed two minor projects with the assistance of UGC Fund. At present one of the teachers is continuing with his minor project work and another teacher is continuing with 3 major project works. Moreover, one of the teachers of our institution has acted as guide under whom 2 scholars are pursuing their Ph.D work.

As per recommendation of NAAC peer team we have started collecting feedback from three categories of stakeholders — (1) Students (2) Members of alumni and (3) Teachers. Strength of the college has been increased from around 800 to 878 (Approx.). Due to increase in student strength, the capability of resource mobilization of the college has been increased. The students of Commerce, Education, Geography and Economics are starting their project work or field work under the guidance of their concerned departmental teachers because these are a part of their syllabi.

In most of the departments lacking of whole-time teachers, departments are mainly run by Govt. approved Contractual and Part-time teachers, and Guest teachers.

However, we always try to overcome the hurdles and we are always trying our best to bring a new wave and culture in the college. For this purpose the college has taken the following steps:

* The construction of science building has been completed. This will in turn reduce the space constraint to some extent.

* The Library has been computerized with KOHA Software. Space of the library has been increased and stock number of books and journals have been increased with the help of UGC fund and self-fund. Both teachers and students can access a wide repository of e-books and academic journals by availability of INFLIBNET facility.

* New computers, laptops and accessories have been purchased.

* Installation of Solar System.

* Installation of Biometric machine.

* Arrangement of more departmental seminar.

* Installation of software for students' feedback and student profile mapping.

* Honours programmes have been introduced in Physics, Education, Sanskrit, Computer Science and Chemistry.

* New General subjects like Food & Nutrition, Sanskrit and Journalism & Mass Communication have been introduced.

* Purchasing and installation of 2 Kirloskar Generators in two buildings to meet the power crisis.

* Most of the departments are provided a Desktop plus Laptop with printer. Some departments have been equipped by projector with screen.

* Most of the departments are provided with internet facilities.

* Library and office are fully computerized along with internet facilities.

* Installation of CCTV.

* Lift with ARD facility.

* Modernization of accounts and staff room.

* Creation of a Smart class room.

* One room has been upgraded into Virtual class room with the assistance of WB Government Fund.

* Renovation of auditorium.

* Purchase of 2 water cooler (Blue Star) Machines.

* Purchase of 10 Aqua guard Machines.

* Garden of Medicinal Plant.

* Plantation of tree, both outside and inside the campus.

* Renovation of Canteen.

* Cementing of internal road of the college inside the campus.

* Installation of Sound System.

* Public Addressing Sound System.

* Total Online admission process started from the academic session 2015-16.

* Installation of public address system.

* Laboratory equipments have been purchased.

* The college has already installed Wi-Fi facilities in the college campus.

* In recent years, the college has made an effort for further beautification of the college campus by taking various measures like colouring of college campus, re-built of college floor with tiles and re-built of few washrooms, re-built of college gate etc. Again, a new guard room is also built up.

* The college has installed solar plan for generation of green power supply. The college has planned to install rain water harvesting system.

* Skill Development Training Centre under NSDC.

We are unsetting grateful for the grant that we received from UGC, State Government, MP, MLA, LADS fund without which no development would have been feasible.

7.1.2

1. Institution shows gender sensitivity in providing facilities such as:
    1. Safety and Security
    2. Counselling
    3. Common Room

Response:

Although Panihati Mahavidyalaya is a co-educational college it is especially sensitive and empathetic towards the social and economical problems of the female students being admitted to the college. The college is particularly concerned with the upliftment of those students who belong to the financially weaker sections of society and it works constantly toward to their social, educational and economical empowerment.

Institution shows sensitivity in providing facilities such as:

A. Safety and Security: The college gives great priority to the issue of safety of all students, teaching and non-teaching staff, especially female students and staff members inside its premises. In order to maintain security and safety within its campus, the college has undertaken the following initiatives:

1. A senior and experienced Durwan, along with an experienced guard, has been posted at the college entrance.

2. The entire college campus is under CCTV surveillance to check any untoward incident and to enable the administration to pinpoint culprits as and when necessary.

3. A Grievance Redressal Box for the students is placed in front of the Principal's chamber. The redressal box is regularly checked for complaints and prompt action is taken in case of such complaints.

4. The College has a Sexual Harassment Redressal Cell to address different issues pertaining to sexual harassment.

5. There are separate washrooms for male and female students on every floor of the College main building. In the Science Building, there are separate washrooms on some of the floors and some of the floors have washrooms for either male students and female students.

6. The College also has separate washrooms for male and female teaching and non-teaching staff of the College.

7. Distinct codes of conduct for students, teaching and non-teaching staff have been laid out. Students, teachers, and non-teaching staff are encouraged to maintain a liberal, non-biased outlook and a helpful, encouraging approach towards the female stakeholders of the College.

B. Counselling: The College does not have a professional counsellor but problems faced by female students of the College are looked into by primarily the female teachers of the College with active support of the remaining staff. Any issues regarding misbehaviour on campus or even problems related to families are addressed by the teachers through personal counselling. Teachers also address issues of gender sensitivity inside the classrooms as well as outside-classroom interaction with students. Support of the Students' Council is also sought while addressing these matters.

C. Common Room: The college provides separate common rooms to boys and girls with several indoor game facilities. Moreover, the college also provides the facilities of multi-gym to both male and female students and staff members.

7.1.5 Waste Management steps including:

- Solid waste management
- Liquid waste management
- E-waste management

Response:

Waste management is generally conducted by the Panihati Municipality. The municipality personnel collect and dispose solid waste every day at the morning. The College has placed dustbins in corridors and outside toilets. Students and staff members are encouraged to dispose off waste in these dustbins.

Solid Waste Management:

Whatever solid waste is generated inside and around the college premises are generally picked up by the municipality from time to time. Moreover, the entire campus is a plastic free zone and the college authority tries to address all aberrations.

Liquid Waste Management:

The liquid waste generated in the chemistry department is disposed off through proper channel.

e-waste Management:

Some printers used in the college office are non-cartridge (Ink-jet) and therefore such printers are conducive to the prevention of spread of harmful carcinogenic e-waste. Specific laboratory equipment which are not in conditions of repair is sold in conformity with the rules of the purchase committee of the institution.e-waste corner has been set up in the computer science department where e-waste is accumulated. Awareness is inculcated in the minds of the students and staff to dump their personal e-waste into the bin.

7.1.6 Rain water harvesting structures and utilization in the campus

Response:

At present the college does not have any provision for Rain Water Harvesting structures in the college campus. There are some infrastructural constraints towards installation of this project. But we are considering the possibility of implementing this project in our future course of action. We have a huge space crunch. A solar plant has already been installed by the college that occupies a large amount of space on the roof of the college main building. Thus, identification of proper space for installation of rainwater harvesting project is under active consideration of the management.

7.1.7 Green Practices

- Students, staff using

a) Bicycles
b) Public Transport
c) Pedestrian friendly roads

- Plastic-free campus
- Paperless office
- Green landscaping with trees and plants

Response:

Green Practices:

- Student and staff using Bicycles: Several of our students, teaching and non-teaching staff live close by and travel to college on bicycles. The college provides separate space for parking their bicycles.
- Student and staff using public transport: Most of the teachers, non-teaching staff and students avail public transport for communicating to and fro journey between the college and their residence. However, few of our teaching-staff avail personal transport for the said purpose, but due to space constraint the college is unable to provide sufficient space for the said purpose. At present, the college can provide space for motorcycle parking for the staff.
- Pedestrian Friendly Roads: The college is surrounded by 10" wide pedestrian pavements all around.
- Plastic free campus: The College proudly declares itself a plastic-free zone. The college has organized a workshop to generate awareness among the students, teachers and non-teaching staff about the hazards of plastic and evil effect on environment.

- Paperless office: The College has provided adequate number of computers to the office staff to execute their office work smoothly. At present, a commendable part of official records are maintained through computer software. Our office and accounts department are fully computerized.
- Green landscaping with trees and plants: Due to space constraint, the college provides space for gardening for flowering and medicinal plants around the college campus. The winter season is cherished by growing vibrant seasonal flowers like Dahlia, Marigold and so on and so forth. As a result, the premises become a feast for the eyes.

7.1.18 Institution organizes national festivals and birth / death anniversaries of the great Indian personalities

Response:

The College celebrates national festivals such as Vasant Panchami, Holi (Vasanta Utsav), Raksha Bandhan, and International Mother Language Day with great fervour. Students and teachers participate in large numbers offerring prayers during Vasant Panchami and smearing each other with colour during Holi. During Raksha Bandhan, students and teachers spread the message of unity and love by tying colourful Rakhis on each others wrists. International Mother Language Day or Bhasha Diwas is celebrated with a day long cultural programme. National days such as Republic Day and Independence Day are celebrated with pride each year. Birth anniversaries of Netaji Subhas Chandra Bose, Mahatma Gandhi, Rabindranath Tagore are also celebrated.

7.1.19 The institution maintains complete transparency in its financial, academic, administrative and auxiliary functions

Response:

The college maintains complete transparency in its academic, financial, administrative and auxiliary functions. All such functions are conducted in such a manner so that it can be rigorously scrutinized by all concerned corners of society.

- Financial Functions: The college always did its financial undertakings through e-tender process/mechanism which allows fully open transactions through its website. Any transaction above Rs. 10,000 is done as per rules of Finance.
- Academic Functions: Since 2015-16 our admission process is done online basis strictly according to the norms issued by the parent university and reservation norms for the reserve category of Government of West Bengal. The internal as well as the University results are regularly posted on the college notice board. Moreover, the verified answer scripts are handed over to the students for any clarification that they might require. All the departments carry on the teaching-learning process strictly adhering to the academic calendar set by them at the beginning of each session.
- Administrative Functions: The administrative function of the college is fully transparent since the inception of the institution. Recruitment of full-time teachers against substantive post falls under the purview of College Service Commission (An auxiliary body of State Government). The appointment of the Contractual and Part-time teachers of the college are duly carried out by the Government of West Bengal. They are all appointed by the college authority strictly obeying the UGC norms. Moreover, the college also appoints Guest Lecturers, strictly adhering to the UGC norms, and through interview headed by a subject expert appointed by the parent university.
- Auxiliary Function: The College provides various kinds of auxiliary services to the students and the staff concerned. The college provides the facilities of gymnasium, cheap canteen amenities, and noise-free and plastic-free eco-friendly environment and so on. The College has generally uploaded important notices in the college website to ensure complete transparency in all of its functioning.

7.2 Best Practices

7.2.1 Describe at least two institutional best practices (as per NAAC Format)

Response:

BEST PRACTICE NO. 1

Title for Presentation of Best Practice: Campus sustainability by use of Solar Energy:

Keeping in mind the present day power crisis, use of solar energy programme has been introduced by the college to make the power cut (i.e. load shedding) under control and save the non-renewable resources.

Goal/Aim:

The main objective behind the introduction of solar energy in our college is to replace the conventional form of electricity and thereby reduce the consumption of electricity to a large extent. This will in turn save non-renewable conventional fund resources like coal, petroleum etc. Moreover, by installing solar panels we can reduce the use of generator during power cuts, thereby controlling the resultant environmental pollution and save the consumption of diesel to a large extent. Thus, the main goal of using solar energy is to replace the conventional non-renewable source of energy and thereby saving the cost of using fuel-generated energy. The main goal of this practice is highlighted below:

- To save electricity
- To provide un-interrupted supply of electricity.
- To minimise the electricity bill.
- To arrest environment pollution to the maximum extent possible.
- To protect the society from the danger of scarcity of conventional non-renewable power resources.
- To protect the electronic equipment from variation of voltage.
- To cope with frequent power cuts i.e. load shedding which is a normal feature in our locality.
- To create fair atmosphere for its installation.

The Context:

This will save the non-renewable conventional fund resource by replacing the existing conventional power resources. Generally, solar energy has proved itself as an environment- friend means of power. Such a practice provides ample scope of controlling environmental pollution. The solar energy is considered as a mature form of alternative energy. It is the most abundant energy resource on earth with 1, 73,000 terawatts of solar energy striking the earth continuously. From the past experiences, it has been observed that frequent power cuts i.e. load shedding is a normal features in our locality. Such power crises forced us to think about using alternative sources of energy. In order to fulfil this target the college had planned to install solar panel at the roof of the main building of the college in the year 2016 by spending an amount of Rs. 3.5 lacks. The duly constituted Governing body of our college, all the members of IQAC, Teacher's Council and all others stakeholders of the college supported this proposal. However, the use of solar energy as a power resource is not a new invention in our country. It is one of the oldest forms of energy. Solar energy has received renewed attention in recent years. People at present are interested in using alternative sources of power. Solar energy is a clean and un-interrupted supply source that can even be used to power vehicles. The college has taken immediate action towards its installation. It is the basic need of the college towards the path of reaching the destination of saving energy and protecting the environment from pollution. It primarily focuses on energy conservation and issues related to climate change. Practical, innovative and sustainable efforts and methods are underway on our campus. The college has formulated strategies and ensured the success of campus sustainability programmes accordingly. The college has installed 8 solar panels on the roof of the college main building along with four Excise Batteries of 48 Volts near the Principal's room for storing solar energy. The solar panels have maximum capacity of 2KVA. The maximum load consumption permitted by the solar panels is 1.14KWH. But at present, the college has able to use only 1.1KWH generated power through solar panels. The college has already followed up the above proposal. At present, a few light points in the first floor corridor, all the light points of the outside passage of the college buildings and one fan point of principal's room are run by solar energy generated by our solar panels. Moreover, we also use master switches at specific locations on each floor of the college building to save electricity.

The Practice:

At present, power supply to a few power units which were previously being run by conventional electric power has been replaced by innovative nonconventional sources of power like solar energy at our college premises. Now, we are only connecting a few power points of lesser importance with solar energy on an experimental basis. If we succeed, in future we will gradually increase the use of solar energy by connecting more electricity consumption points with solar energy. But practically it is not possible to implement this now due to financial barriers. Thus, we have to think about other sources of finance from where we may raise our necessary funds for utilisation for this purpose.

The activities under this programme would be:

- To reduce energy consumption, the college campus can implement lower cost efficiency upgrades, employ awareness building strategies around energyand behaviour changing topics that offer opportunity for increased students and community member involvement.
- To promote awareness for energy conservation.
- To create awareness about the use of solar energy by replacing the conventional power resources. This will in turn save money.
- Highlighting the shortcomings/drawbacks of theconventional power resource of WBSEB that is being currently used
- Highlighting the benefits of solar energy as power saver.
- Highlighting the disadvantages of using solar energy as a power resource so that remedial measures can be adopted for future development.

This practice helps us to reduce environment pollution, arrest power cuts, reduce the cost of electricity consumption, reduce energy scarcity, conserve conventional non-renewable fund resource, supplying uninterrupted power supply with stable voltage , protect electronic equipment and accessories,.

- Government of West Bengal has always emphasised on the attempts for installation of solar panel for generating electricity for pollution-free usage at the college premises with the view of "saving electricity". However, technical knowledge and requisite finance is required for its installation because its initial installation cost is much higher than the cost of using conventional source of energy. Such programmes assist us in providing pollution-free energy at minimum cost. For the success of this programme a few skill traits are essential. These are as follows:

- Technical skill
- Knowledge skill

- Adaptability skill
- Distribution skill
- Time management skill

Evidence of Success:

This programme saves cost of use of electricity to a great extent. At the time of installation of solar panel, the college received government subsidy which further reduced the cost of installation. The campus implements lower cost efficiency upgrades, employs awareness building strategies around energy usage and behaviour changing tactics that offer opportunity for increased student and community members involvement. The college also promotes awareness programmes for energy conservation.

Problems encountered and resource required:

The problems encountered by us during the installation of solar panels at the roof of the main building of the college have already been mentioned in point no. 4. We have limited financial resources. As such, it has not been possible for us to install more solar panels and make our college dependent solely, or at least mostly, on solar power, and establish our college as an environment-friendly institution. We have noticed that people are still in the dark about the use of solar energy as an alternative power resource which can supplement and substitute conventional non-renewable power resources. Thus, we have had to arrange a few awareness programme regarding the availability, uses and effects of both renewable and non-renewable sources of energy on our environment. Moreover, some technical requirements have to be met often to use the system which is being addressed with technicians and AMC. For more success, we have to install more solar panels with photovoltaic cells and require professionally trained experts who can provide us better guidance regarding the use of solar energy. To overcome these sorts of problems, we need sufficient financial assistance from the government of West Bengal or UGC or local bodies.

Notes (Optional):

At present, such programmes are pursued by many colleges. So, data are easily available for comparison if the need arises.

BEST PRACTICE NO. 2

Title for Presentation of Best Practice: Yoga as a means of healing the body, mind and heart.

Considering the increasingly busy life that we live today and the mental stress, tension, tiredness, physical weakness, that such a life entails, the college has introduced yoga classes at its premises to encourage students, teaching and non-teaching staff and other stakeholders to participate in yoga classes to improve their mental and physical health.

Goal/Aim:

The main objectives behind the introduction of yoga unit at our college is to help the students, teaching and non-teaching staff and other stakeholders of the college stay healthy, physically and mentally. Regular yoga practice provides freedom from various kinds of stress, tension and anxiety and helps in preserving clarity of thought and concentration, which in turn leads to an increase in the level of confidence and a heightened focus on the assigned job. Yoga provides participants with a holistic approach toward physical and psychological well-being. The aims of introducing this practice are as follows:

- It improves clarity of thought, helps unwind oneself, relaxes the body.
- It reduces tension and anxiety and boosts self-confidence. learning to quiet their mind enjoys tension free life.
- To help them to find some peace in the crazy world.
- To help to reduce depression and aging in life.
- To improve kinaesthetic awareness or sense of body moves.
- To help to move fluid in body movement and make them confident enough.
- To help to increase concentration of mind.
- To increase the flexibility of the body and help strengthen the core and makes muscles limber.
- To help to increase stamina, strength, neuroplasticity and improve blood flow.
- To lower blood pressure, faster recovery from injury, lower risk of heart disease and to improve focus on memory.
- Yoga is our passion and various stakeholders' health and wellness is our obsession.

The Context:

We are living in an age that is characterised by increasing stress and anxiety. Yoga provides relief from the mental and physical stress. Between classes, examinations, intramurals and campus activities it can be difficult to find peace. Yoga goes a long way in providing relief from such stress. The regular practice of yoga as part of a class creates a sense of belonging among those who takes part in them. It enables them to meet with students of other streams and interact with different people. Yoga can be incorporated into fitness and sports schedules of various types and thus can be practised by almost all people. Yoga routines can be modified to suit people of different ages and stages of health. The college plans to offer course credits for yoga classes taught on the college campus. Though mainly aimed at the students, the college also includes staff-members. It tries to bring an overall sense of well-being among the stakeholders of the college.

The duly constituted Governing Body of our college, all the members of IQAC, Teacher's Council and stakeholders of the college have wholeheartedly supported this proposal. Yoga is not a newly invented method of exercise. It has been practised for hundreds of years and has been perfected as not just a form of exercise but also a healthy way of life. It is true that India is the birth place of yoga but few people make it a part of their daily life. The college aims to introduce students to a healthy way of life which will help in increasing concentration, developing a confident, level-headed personality and good habits. These in turn will help the students in their future, whether it be their career or their personal life.

The college has taken immediate action for starting the yoga classes at our college premises for the first time and making students aware of the benefits of yoga. It is the basic need of the college to make the various stakeholders of the college healthy, energetic and alert. The college has formulated strategies to ensure the success of campus sustainability and yoga is a part of that strategy.

The Practice:

At present, due to space constraint, we are bound to use the empty space in front of the auditorium on the second floor of the college main building as Panihati Mahavidyalaya Yoga Unit. But we hope to arrange for a larger space for the classes in future. From 2017, the college began to observe 21st June as International Yoga Day. The college has arranged two awareness programmes as part of the campaigning programme regarding practicing yoga and meditation. The college encourages different stakeholders of the college to join yoga and meditation classes to reduce their mental stress and tension, depression and even high blood pressure and improve their general physical fitness, flexibility, stamina, strength, neuroplasticity and blood flow. Moreover, meditation helps to increase concentration of mind and strength of spinal cord.

The activities under this programme would be:

- To employ awareness building strategies that offer opportunity for increased students and other stakeholders involvement.
- To promote awareness programmes to encourage the various stakeholders to join the yoga classes.
- To create awareness for meditation to improve the confidence limit, concentration of mind and strength of mental peace.
- Identifying the fundamental technique and sequence of yoga practices.
- Highlighting the benefits that may be enjoyed from practicing yoga and meditation.
- Yoga is a perfect barometer for college students because how we show up on our mats is an indication of how we show up in our life. Yoga provides some order in the chaos that life often falls into.

Evidence of Success:

We believe that our project 'Yoga as a means of healing the body, mind and heart' has been able to justify its primary goal of raising awareness amongst the students, staff and other stakeholders of the college. It was evident during a recent Awareness Programme where our stakeholders have shown great enthusiasm and interest in joining the yoga and meditation programme. The response has been positively warm. The initiative has also been lauded by other educational institutions of the same district and the state in general. Since we have just started this project, so we are yet to know the actual results. However, admission to yoga classes is gradually increasing. The college has already purchased 40 mats and two yoga charts for this purpose.

Problems encountered and resource required:

Following problems we have noticed during the yoga classes:-

- Dripping sweat onto your mat during a tough class, rendering it a slip 'n' slid.
- Falling asleep during savasana.
- Getting distracted by that cute person in front of you in their cute yoga outfit.
- Wobbling during Ardha chandrasan.
- Forgetting the Sanskrit names for asana sometimes.
- Falling flat on your face during crow pose.
- Tight hips.
- Trying to square your hips in warrior one.
- Forgetting your towl during hot yoga.
- Foot cramps, which are legitimately the worst.

Notes (Optional):

At present, most of the colleges in West Bengal are not start such project work. So data is not available for making inter college comparison in future.

7.3 Institutional Distinctiveness

7.3.1 Describe/Explain the performance of the institution in one area distinctive to its vision, priority and thrust

Response:

The institution, Panihati Mahavidyalaya, which was prior to 2009 affiliated to University of Calcutta, at present affiliated to West Bengal State University. It started its journey from the year 1976. From the very inception it has operated as a co-educational degree college. The college was established with the vision of empowerment through knowledge, of the youth of the nearby locality and it has always consistently provided quality education mostly to the first-generation learners through modern approaches. Moreover, the college aims to cater to the needs of students of diverse socio, economic and cultural background and cultivate moral, social, intellectual, spiritual and overall development of all students irrespective of their belonging not only through enhancing their intellectual ability but also by nurturing their talents. The vision of the college is not only to provide quality education but also to shape the students into better citizen enriched with self-confidence, patriotism, perseverance and humanity. Our goal is to empower our future generation with authority and passion. This can be well-evidenced in the success of our ex-students in the diverse fields of life – a few examples of which are as follows:

Renowned Singer Pankaj Natto (Zee Bangla Sa Re Ga Ma Pa famous Kirtan Singer)

Renowned Karate Game Champion(Black Belt) Krishnandu Chakraborty, who represent India in various tournaments of karate in State, National and International level Championship tournament. His various medals and certificate are annexed herewith in the annexure for your convince. He is state champion in Boxing and kick boxing. Moreover, he is national champion in taekwondo (Silver midlist).

One of our students, Sri Debojyoti Chakraborty, represents Bengal in the 49th Junior National Football Championship for B.C. Roy Trophy held in Ranchi, Jharkhand in the year 2013.(Year of admission in our institution in B.A general stream)

Again, many of our students are academically well upgraded to be employed in many reputed educational institution as teacher. Few of them again serve our institution as faculty.

Sri Syam Pada Ray (Teachers of Philosophy),

Dr.Kushal Chatterjee (ex-Guest lecturer of our college), presently work as Guest Lecturer in RBC College, Naihati.

Sri Bikash Mal, an ex-student of our institution has joined Bankura Sammilani College as a guest lecturer in Department of Sanskrit since November, 2018.

Sri Subrata Gayan, an ex-student of our institution has joined Jadavpur university as a Research Scholar since August, 2017.

Sri Sanju Das, an ex-student of our institution has joined Panchla College as a guest faculty of department of education since 2017.

Smt. Shrabani Das Biswas, an ex-student of our institution has joined West Bengal State Government Job since 2017.

Sri Pradip Kr. Das, an ex-student of our student of our institution has Joined Cossipoor Gunshel Factory as an office staff.

Sri Biplab Singha Ray, an ex-student of our students has started practice as C.A. Professional since 2012.

Sri sanjoy Chandra , an ex-student of our student of our institution has Joined Defence Comptroller General of accounts as an auditor since 2012.

Again, one of our ex-student, Somnath Das has chosen music as his profession since 2016. His area of music is Falk, Classical, Rabindra Sangeet-Dal-Madal, Retro Musical event, Boliwood Music etc.

Both teachers and students apply their holistic approach in performing their job to reach out the college alumni within the country and abroad and to involve them not only in cultural activities but also socially meaningful and other related activities to enrich the college.

5. CONCLUSION

Additional Information :

No such information.

Concluding Remarks :

The following are the achievements of the College in the last 7 years:

- Two Smart classrooms with audio-visual aids have been created in the main building.
- LCD projector & computer have been extended to some departments to upgrade the teaching methods.
- The working hours of the library have been rescheduled from 10 a.m. to 5.00 p.m.
- E-resources are provided for the college library in the form of inflibnet.
- The College Auditorium Renovation was renovated in 2012.
- The library space has been increased in 2011 and stock of library books has risen from 6320 to 16775.
- The Central Library of our college has been fully automated.
- Layout of office, including accounts, was rearranged in 2013.
- Internet facility is available in Library, Office, and Principal’s room.
- Wi-fi zone becomes available at 1st floor, library zone in 2016.
- The college has purchased various Laboratory equipments, computers and their accessories, xerox machines etc. with UGC Funds.
- Online UPS, Projectors, and CCTVs have been installed in different strategic locations inside the College campus.
- Biometric attendance machine has been installed in 2016.
- Sound box including sound system has been installed in 2014 for taking classes with large capacity of students and announcement in 1st and 2nd Floor corridor.
- Refrigerators & water cooling machines for drinking water have been installed for teachers and students.
- An advanced research laboratory has been established under the Principal Investigatorship/Supervisorship of Dr. Anirban Ghosh in Dept. of Zoology with the funding of SERB (DST), BBI, CSIR, GoI; ICMR, GoI and UGC. Ph.D. supervision is also provided.
- Lift facility for science building.
- Online admission started from the 2015-16 academic session.
- Infrastructure of canteen has been renovated in 2015.

Registration No. SERC/LS-388 /2011 Dated: 16th February, 2012

Subject: Project titled "Identification of cellular hierarchy of microglia by developing rodent in vitro model system: a unique analogue to their differentiating developmental morphs" submitted under Fast Track Proposals for Young Scientists Scheme.

Dear Dr. Ghosh,

I am pleased to inform you that the above cited project has been recommended for funding subject to you fulfilling the eligibility conditions. You are now requested to send the following documents/informations (hard copies by speed post/registered post only) before 30th April, 2012. The final budget to be sanctioned would be based on quotations/invoices received, existing norms etc.

1. Institutional certificate from the Head of the institute or competent authority of the institute where* the project would be implemented as per the format attached, on proper letterhead and with all official seals.
2. List of the facilities available/to be extended by the institute for this project.
3. Copy of your Ph.D. award
4. Copy of your Birth Certificate and attested copy of Government certificate, if claiming age relaxation as per existing norms.
5. In case you intend to draw fellowship from the project grant, a certificate/undertaking mentioning that you are not drawing and will not draw any emoluments/fellowship/salary from any other source, while drawing fellowship from above project.
6. A certificate stating that any visit abroad for a period more than eight weeks would be undertaken after due permission from SERB.
7. A summary list of all major & minor equipments indicating cost (including additional charges like freight, insurance, customs charges, Govt. taxes etc, if any) needed for the project. The list may be supported with technical justification of its requirement in the above project and also a copy of lowest quoted price/invoice from the supplier for each requested item/s.
8. Details under consumables, analytical charges, contingency & travel head.
9. Salary structure for the research personnel (including HRA, Medical Benefits, if applicable etc.) if needed in the project with detailed justification/s.

Kindly quote the above reference number in all future correspondence. The project Registration no. may also be mentioned in all research communications arising from the above project with due acknowledgement of SERB.

Please note that if we do not hear from you by 30th April, 2012, it would be assumed that you are not interested in undertaking the above project and the file would be closed. Kindly submit all requested information and documents by post in single envelope, so that we can process further. Please do not send any documents as mail attachments.

WITH REGARDS AND BEST WISHES FOR 2012,

B'	Total (General)	9,50,000
C	Total cost of the project (A' + B')	23,00,000

2. Sanction of the SERB is also accorded to the payment of Rs. 13,50,000/- (Rupees Thirteen lakh fifty thousnd only) under 'Grants for creation of Capital assets' and Rs. 3,00,000/- (Rupees Three lakh only) under 'Grants-in-aid -General' to Principal, Panihati Mahavidyalaya, Kolkata being the grant for the year 2012-13 for implementation of the said research project.

3. The expenditure involved is debitable to Grant-in-aid for the year 2012-13 (Plan Expenditure- Capital) - Rs. 13,50,000/-

Grant-in-aid for the year 2012-13 (Plan Expenditure- General) - Rs. 3,00,000/-

This release is made under OYS Scheme.

4. The Sanction has been issued with the approval of the competent authority under delegated powers and vide Diary No.SERB/F/ 756 /2012-13 dated 15th May, 2012.

Contd. 2/-

6. Sanction of the grant is subject to the conditions as detailed in Annexure - I

6. Overhead expenses are meant for the host Institute towards the cost for providing infrastructural facilities and general administrative support etc including benefits to the staff employed in the project

7. While providing operational flexibility among various subheads under head General-A, it should be ensured that not more than Rs. 1.5 lakh each should be spent for travel and contingency

8. The total release amount of Rs. 16,50,000/- (Rupees Sixteen lakh fifty thousand only) will be drawn by the Drawing & Disbursing Officer of the SERB and will be disbursed by means of cheque/DD favoring "PRINCIPAL, PANIHATI MAHAVIDYALAYA, KOLKATA" and will be sent to The Principal, Panihati Mahavidyalaya, Barasat Road, Sodepur, Kolkata-700110, West Bengal

9. As per rule 211 of GFR, the accounts of project shall be open to inspection by sanctioning authority/audit whenever the institute is called upon to do so

10. The institute will furnish to the SERB, New Delhi, Utilization certificate and an audited statement of accounts pertaining to the grant immediately after the end of each financial year

11. The manpower sanctioned in the project, if any is co-terminus with the duration of the project and SERB will have no liability to meet the fellowship etc. beyond the duration of the project.

12. The institute will maintain separate audited accounts for the project. It is found expedient to keep a part or whole of grant in a separate bank account earning interest. The interest earned should be reported to the SERB, New Delhi. The interest thus earned will be treated as a credit to the institute to be adjusted towards further installment of the grant.

13. The sanctioned equipments would be procured as per GFR and its disposal would be done with prior approval of SERB.

Sir/Madam,

This is with reference to the above mentioned project proposal which you have submitted to the Council for funding The project was recommended for period of three year with following suggestion that if possible PI might verify the results by TEM It is requested that the following items should be sent to the Council in the given format -

1. Undertaking part-I (form enclosed) duly filled in and signed by the Head of the Institute/University/Centre
2. Name and address of the statutory audit authority of the Institute duly filled in and signed by the head of the Institute/Univ/Centre
3. Detailed break-up of contingency item-wise

- 1st year Rs 3,50,000, 2nd year Rs 3,50,000 & 3rd year Rs 2,50,000

4. Non availability certificate of equipment of Rs 12,00,000/- in the following format

- Format for Certificate

This is to certify that the equipments namely "_____" are not available in the Institute/Centre/Univ or the said equipment are available with the Institute/Univ /Centre but cannot be spared for this project

Signature of the P I — Signature of the Head of the Institute

5. Institutional Ethical Clearance approval

All the above documents related to this project proposal may please be sent to this office by post for further necessary at our end A scanned copy of the above may also be sent

2. The terms and conditions of the grant will be as per the Guidelines of the scheme.
3. A sanction letter (100% of non-recurring and 50% of recurring grant) is enclosed herewith.
4. The College is requested to submit 'Acceptance Certificate', duly signed by the Principal and the Principal Investigator.
5. The date of implementation will be the date of receipt of the first demand draft by the College and may be intimated in the Acceptance Certificate. The tenure of the Project will be twenty four months for all subjects.

Yours faithfully,

(Dr. Mohammad Arif)
Joint Secretary

CHAPTER-1
INTRODUCTION

1.1. PURPOSE OF THE FIELD STUDY:

As a subject concerned with the study of human activities in relation to the physical environment, geography should have a strong appeal to young people. As the term suggests, field studies are learning experiences outside of the classroom. Like many other sciences, geography is also a field science. Thus, a geographical enquiry is always needed to be supplemented through a well-planned field survey. These surveys enhance our understanding about patterns of spatial distributions, their associations and relationships at the local level. Further, field surveys facilitate the collection of local level information that is not available through secondary sources. Thus, field surveys are carried out to gather required information so as the problem under investigation is studied in depth as per the predefined objectives.

Field studies allow us to gather their own (primary) data, provide opportunities to extend classroom learning through direct observation and experience, and allow for scientific research through field experiments. The purpose of the field study trip should be to address specific outcomes in the curriculum. Field studies should be designed as learning experiences that are integral parts of a unit or theme being studied in the classroom. Field study trips should be viewed as any effective learning experience that includes Activating, Acquiring, and Applying Strategies. Thus, we should be involved as active participants in learning rather than as passive spectators on a trip. So here we consider Lataguri of Mal C.D. block in Jalpaiguri district as field site for the following objectives.

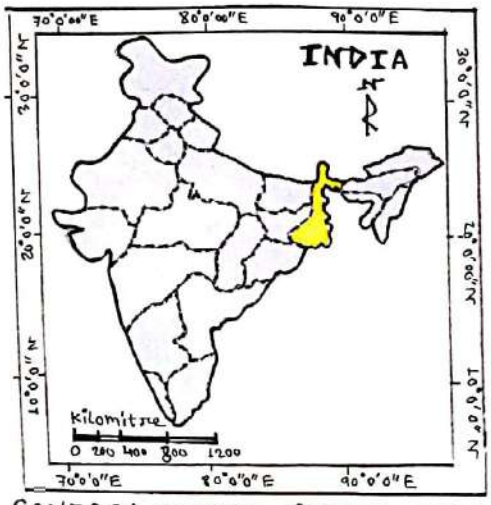

1.2. OBJECTIVES:

Any work is being conducted with the help of some objectives. The field study is based on following objectives -

1. To study the physical set up of the area and assess the significance of natural aesthetic resource in the development of the tourism.
2. To assess socio- economic condition of the local people.
3. To analyse the cultural set up of the study area.

INTRODUCTION

1.1 PURPOSE OF THE FILED STUDY.

Geography is essentially a field Science that co relates man and environment in ration temporal context. Maps are regarded as very important tools in geography study. Updating of maps can be done either obtaining information form Secondary sources or from primary sources. Reliable data of a small area can be broadly be procued from any Secondary Sources. Therefore primary data collection is only way for gathering knowlage of such area. The purpose field study very often incorporates new facts in the literacy knowledge of geography as a discipline of study. It also brings new experience to the investigators.

Scanned with CamScanner

This going through the purpose of filed study it can be defined as investigation of certain problem by personal visits to area of concern. It entails lot of preparation during the pre filed stage when some information must be gathered from the secondary source to have an idea about the study area.

1.2 OBJECTIVES

The objective of the study present field work is to make a detail study of the villages that includes

1. To analyze the demographic characteristics of the sampled villages.

2. To find out the household condition of the smpled villages.

Scanned with CamScanner

3. To assess the economic profile the sampled villages.

4. To study the traffic flow along National Highway 31.

1.3 METHODOLOGY

The Present filed study is based on mainly surveyor's observation and consultation with the local people. The methodology includes both quantitative and qualitative investigation about the socio economic condition. An intensive study has been done on Mal Block of Jalpaiguri District of West Bengal random sampling has been based on scheduled questionnaire.

PART I-Orders and Notifications by the Governor of West Bengal, the High Court, Government Treasury, etc.

GOVERNMENT OF WEST BENGAL
SCHEDULED CASTES & TRIBES WELFARE DEPARTMENT
Writers' Buildings, Calcutta-1.

No. 905-TW/EC
SC/O/MI-1/95(1) , Calcutta, the 12th September, '95.

N O T I F I C A T I O N

I am directed by order of the Governor to say that after careful consideration of the report of the Committee constituted by the Government for making a study on the problems of admission of candidates belonging to the Scheduled Caste and the Scheduled Tribe communities in educational institutions, the Governor is pleased to order as follows :-

1. (a) 22% and 6% of the seats shall be kept reserved for the Scheduled Caste and the Scheduled Tribe candidates respectively in all educational institutions including the following :-

(i) all Primary Schools run by District Primary School Councils, Corporations or Municipalities and similar bodies aided by Government of West Bengal.

(ii) all Government, Government sponsored and recognised non-Government aided Secondary Schools,

(iii) all Government, Government sponsored and recognised non-Government aided Higher Secondary Schools.

(iv) all Government, Government sponsored and recognised non-Government aided Polytechnics, Industrial Training Institutes/Centres, Junior Technical Schools etc.

(v) all Government, Government sponsored and recognised non-Government aided Colleges including Medical and Dental Colleges, Engineering and Technological Colleges, Homoeopathic, Ayurvedic and Nursing Colleges.

(vi) all Universities and Deemed Universities.

(b) The reservation for the Scheduled Caste and the Scheduled Tribe candidates shall be maintained separately for each Course/Stream/Subject in each educational institution.

(c) While calculating the number of reserved seats for the Scheduled Caste and the Scheduled Tribe candidates, a fraction of 0.5 and above shall be treated as one seat.

(d) In case the number of seat reserved for Scheduled Castes and and Scheduled Tribes in Post-graduate and Doctoral courses in Medicine, Dental Science and Nursing is less than 0.5 in each stream, 50 point roster adopted vide notification No.1601-L dated 02.09.1994 shall be followed for filling up of seats.

2. (a) A general merit list based exclusively on merit as reflected in the results of the relevant examination/selection test irrespective of caste/tribe status shall be prepared separately for each Course/Stream/Subject in each educational institution to fill up the unreserved seats. Separate merit list for the Scheduled Caste and the Scheduled Tribe candidates shall be prepared for each Course/Stream/Subject in each educational institution to fill up the seats reserved for the Scheduled Caste and the Scheduled Tribe candidates respectively. The Scheduled Caste and the Scheduled Tribe candidates who have been placed in the general merit list to fill up unreserved seats shall not be taken into account in the reserved lists for the Scheduled Caste and the Scheduled Tribe candidates respectively.

(b) For admission to the courses, B.A.(Hons.), B.Sc.(Hons.), B.Com. (hons.), M.A.,M.Sc., M.Com., B.Tech., M.Tech., M.Sc.(Tech.), B.Ed., LL.M., B.Lib.Sc., M.Lib.Sc. Master's Degree courses in Engineering and Architecture. Master of Business Management/Master of Business Administration, M.Phil., Post-graduate and Doctoral courses in Medicine, Dental Science and Nursing and SC or ST candidate getting admission should have in the previous examination qualifying marks which are not lower by more than 25% from the marks obtained by the last candidate of the general category, however, in any case, such a candidate obtaining marks lower than the marks as prescribed by the regulations of the University for admission to the relevant course will not be eligible for admission. The candidates included in the general merit list will not be counted towards these reserved quota.

(c) For admission to Undergraduate Medical and Dental Courses, there shall be no cut-off marks for the Scheduled Caste and the Scheduled Tribe candidates in the Joint Entrance Examination to fill up the reserved seats.

(d) For filling up the reserved seats in all other Courses/Streams/Subjects, the Scheduled Caste and the Scheduled Tribe candidates who have secured the minimum marks as per relevant regulations for admission to any Course/Stream/Subject as may be prescribed by the West Bengal Higher Secondary Council, Universities etc., shall be given admission forms by the educational institution for any such Courses/Streams/Subjects.

(e) For the purpose of allotment of Courses/Streams/Subjects/Colleges, the Scheduled Caste and the Scheduled Tribe candidates in the unreserved general merit list shall be placed respectively on the top of the reserved lists for the Scheduled Caste and the Scheduled Tribe candidates. Thereafter allotment of Courses/Streams/Subjects/Colleges to the Scheduled Caste and the Scheduled Tribe candidates placed in the general merit list and those placed in the reserved lists shall be make on the basis of their inter-se merit and their options against the reserved seats plus those unreserved seats earmarked for the Scheduled Caste and the Scheduled Tribe candidates included in the general merit list.

3. Seats reserved for the Scheduled Caste candidates and remaining unfilled even after following the instructions laid down in the previous paragraphs may be filled up by the Scheduled Tribe candidates and vice versa.

4. The Head of each educational institution shall submit an Annual Return on admission of students into various courses in that institution to the respective District Magistrates and Ex-officio District Commissioners for Reservation in case of institutions located outside the district of Calcutta and to the Joint Commissioner for Reservation in case of institutions located in the district of Calcutta by 31st December each year in such form as may be prescribed by the Government.

This order issues in supersession of all previous orders issued in his matter.

By order of the Governor,
N.KRISHNAMURTHI.
Chief Secy.to the Govt. of West Bengal.

No. 396-Edn(CS)/10M-95/14(Pt-I) Date: 29.04.2016

Subject: Online admissions for the Academic Session 2016-17 to all UG & PG courses; application of the same modalities as were stipulated for online admissions in 2015-16; clarification reg.

The results of the West Bengal Higher Secondary Examinations 2016 are expected to be published in the middle of May 2016. This Department has received queries from different Colleges of the State regarding the admission modalities to be followed by them for the ensuing academic session 2016-17.

It may be recalled that from the last academic session, i.e. 2015-16, admissions to all Under Graduate and Post Graduate courses (Honours and General) in the State-funded higher education institutions in West Bengal (except institutions recognised as minority institutions) were made through an online, merit-based system in order to render the admissions more transparent, hassle-free and convenient for the students.

Considering the success achieved, and in view of the fact that the requisite infrastructure for the online admissions system has already been put in place in the State's higher education institutions, I am directed to clarify that all the procedural and administrative modalities which were stipulated for online admissions for the academic session 2015-16 shall be followed in toto for the ensuing academic session 2016-17.

Since funds have already been provided last year for the online system's hardware and software requirements, and the said infrastructure has already been created, a sum of Rs.50,000 (fifty thousand) shall be allotted to each State-funded higher education institution in due course for defrayment of costs for the online admissions in the academic session 2016-17. Any expenditure in excess of this amount may be met from the institution's own funds.

Copies of some of the relevant G.O.s and guidelines issued for last year's online admissions are enclosed for your ready reference and guidance, viz.

(i) 908-Edn(CS)/10M-95/14, dated 17.11.2014
(ii) 290-Edn(CS), dated 30.03.2015
(iii) 492-Edn(CS)/10M-95/2014, dated 02.06.2015
(iv) 752-Edn(CS)/10M-95/2014 dated 10.08.2015

I am directed to request the Vice-Chancellors of all State-aided Universities to kindly take urgent necessary action in this regard, including issuing suitable instructions to all the affiliated institutions for compliance of the above.

amendments, where necessary, may be done as per the due process laid down in the University's Statutes / Rules / Regulations/Ordinances, as the case may be

iv. Planning the exercise shall cover all aspects of the exercise, namely, installation of requisite hardware (including servers / fail-proof UPS etc.), preparation / customisation of software tailored to the specific requirements of each individual institution, training of personnel for operating the system, widely publicising the important dates related to the admission process, tying up with banks for deposit of fees including all fees related to admission (to the extent possible, and as a principle, fees should not be accepted on the campus), and bringing out a detailed advisory for admission seekers guiding them on the various procedural modalities/steps involved in the preparation of merit list, counselling and admission, along with a calendar of dates.

v. The hardware planning should be done so as to ensure a robust, crash-proof system but with due regard to economy. The objective is to minimise expenditure to the extent practicable but ensuring that the hardware and software deliver a seamless and interruption-free delivery of service. It is expected that the institutions already have procured hardware including computer, servers, UPS, printer etc. However, where new acquisition or augmentation of hardware is necessary, the same may be done by the institutions concerned. A reliable, high-speed internet data connection will be an important component of the hardware system.

vi. It needs to be kept in mind that the reservation of seats for the OBC students (10% for category A and 7% for category B) has commenced from the ensuing Academic Year 2014-15. This is in addition to the existing reservation for SC and ST students, and the software will have to cater to this requirement too. The full 17% reservation has to be achieved in a phased manner over a six-year period starting from 2014-15. New institutions having the required infrastructure may go in for the full 17% reservation of seats for OBCs in 2014-15 while the other institutions may make such number of seats available to OBC students in 2014-15 as are afforded by the available infrastructure.

vii. The software preparation would be done by each institution since the choice of subjects on offer would be different from one institution to another institution, and the software would have to cater to the varying requirements of different institutions and be able to generate a list of successful candidates based on merit. For this, each institution will have to prepare information relating to the courses on offer (Honours and General), number of seats, combination of subsidiary subjects available for Honours, fee structure, etc. Further, the interface with banks (where available/feasible) will have to be carefully planned and suitably catered to in the software. This institution-bank interface and its level of sophistication will vary, depending upon the type of electronic service the relevant banks are able to provide.

viii. For software preparation, each institution will be at liberty to entrust the work to any reliable agency subject to the observance of due diligence and rules in this regard. Credentials of the agency would have to be verified thoroughly since the exercise does not allow any margin of error. The target should be to have the software ready and tested not later than the end of March 2015. The work can even be entrusted to an agency on turnkey

ABSTRACT

Teacher education is a program related with teacher proficiency and competence that would make them competent enough to face new challenges in the education. Now a days the field of education is not only limited with books but has broadened in various new horizons. We also need to train teacher with new perspectives as the outer would is in the classroom and schools are opening to the world. The pre-service and in-service teacher education programs have shown paradigm shift with its emphasis on globalization and individualization. This main purpose of this paper is to indicate main changes that have incurred teacher education in India and also provide an overview of trends, reforms and innovations in teacher education. A good teacher's training programs have teachers working continuously with expert master teachers in a traditional classroom or virtual setting enhance the knowledge and experience base. However expert teachers are also imparting knowledge about how students learn, how to assess their learning and about effective teaching strategies to provide them a platform to build repertoire. It has been recognized that teacher education program should be structured and modified a way that enables them to respond dynamically to the new problems and challenges in the field of education, then only teacher can help in national development. Apart from theoretical discourses little empirical work has been done to explore it. In this paper I made an attempt to find out innovation towards the new trends in teacher education.

INTRODUCTION :

According to NCTE (1998) teacher is the most important element in any educational program. He plays a central role in implementation of educational process at any stage. The level of achievement of learner is determined by teacher competence. So the quality of education basically depends on the quality of teachers. Kothari commission has very rightly said, "The destiny of India is being shaped in its classrooms." As the population in India is growing very rapidly day by day the need of well qualified and professionally trained teachers will also increase in the coming years. So lots of efforts should be made to improve teacher education. Teacher education is a continuous process and its pre-service and in-service components are complimentary to each other. Education is instrumental in the preparation of teachers who can in their practice ensure transformative learning, where teacher and learner, learner and learner are co-constructors of knowledge. Once teachers have a thorough understanding of the teaching content, they would never lose that expertise. So knowledge about the subject matter and feeling comfortable in delivery are equally important for good teachers. Sometime they try to link knowledge in varieties of different way while disseminating the information to students while engaging them in effective learning. Today we have competent teachers who have a whole new

International Capital Mobility

Urban Unemployment and Informal Sector

ANINDITA BASU (CHOWDHURY)
AND KAUSIK GUPTA

ABSTRACT

The article has compared the domestic rate of return on capital with that of return on international capital market and has analyzed what happens on the output of various sector in two different regimes-one is the situation of international capital immobility and other is the situation of perfect international capital mobility in the Harris-Todaro (1970) framework. This article shows that there arise two possibilities. In one case fully skilled sector vanishes and partially skilled sector absorbs entire capital that flows to the economy. It creates a shortage of effective supply of unskilled labour in the informal sector and as a result output of informal sector decreases. In other case we find that as a result of foreign capital inflow partially skilled sector vanishes and fully skilled sector absorbs entire capital that flows to the economy. Thus this paper shows that there may arise a case of complete polarization in the economy in the presence of globalization.

MEANDERING HABIT OF THE LOWER AJAY AND ITS IMPACT ON THE BEGUNKOLA SETTLEMENT NEAR KATWA

Laxmi Narayan Saha

Abstract

Rivers often pose hazards, if it is flood prone and or affected by severe bank erosion. It is the storehouse of resources because it is used for various purposes like irrigation, navigation, power generation, recreation, domestic, industrial purposes etc. Almost all civilizations are river-based civilizations e.g. Indus valley civilization. A river either flows through a straight channel or shows a meander habit or both at different stretches. River meander is a function of discharge, gradient, and load. A river meander is significant from resource point of view and hazard perspective as well. This paper highlights meandering habit of the lower Ajay near Katwa and its relevance to Begunkola settlement. The study area is the lower most part of the Ajay, which is a part of the Rarh plain. The meander of Ajay is a process guided meander.. The most prominent one is the Begunkola meander near Katwa. The lower Ajay basin suffers from frequent inundation. The problem is further aggravated due to the outfall level in the Bhagirathi. The recurring occurrence of flood in rainy season is responsible for fertile tract of land along the meander course of the Ajay because of alluvium siltation on both sides of the riverbank. As a result of high fertility status, various food crops e.g. rice, wheat, vegetables and also commercial crops like jute, sugarcane, are produced in the meander belt as in the case of Begunkola. However, the land of Begunkola has decreased at an alarming rate. Due to the fact of bank erosion and flood, the meandering habit of the lower Ajay leads to hazard risk upon the inhabitants of Begunkola. To conclude this it can be said that an artificial neck cut-off of the lower Ajay at Begunkola is the probable solution to save the people and the land of Begunkola from hazardous effect of bank erosion.

Introduction:

Almost all civilizations are river-based civilization. The Indus valley civilization developed in the river basin of the Indus. A river is significant from various perspective i.e. it has political, social, economic and religious significance. Rivers often form political boundaries between two countries, two states, and in between two districts. The economic or resource significance lies in the multiple utilization of river water for various purposes like irrigation, navigation, power generation, recreation, domestic, industrial purposes etc. Rivers have religious significance also. Many rivers are considered to be sacred e.g. the Ganga for Hindus. Rivers often possess hazards, if it is flood prone and or affected by severe bank erosion. River meander is a function of discharge, gradient, and load. All these variables are environmentally significant or, in other words, a river meander is significant from resource point of view and hazard perspective as well.

Objectives:

The main objectives of the present paper are:

1. To study the meandering habits of the lower Ajay near Katwa.
2. Its relevance to Begunkola settlement.

Public Park Valuation using Travel Cost Method : A Case Study of Bansdroni, Kolkata Municipal Corporation

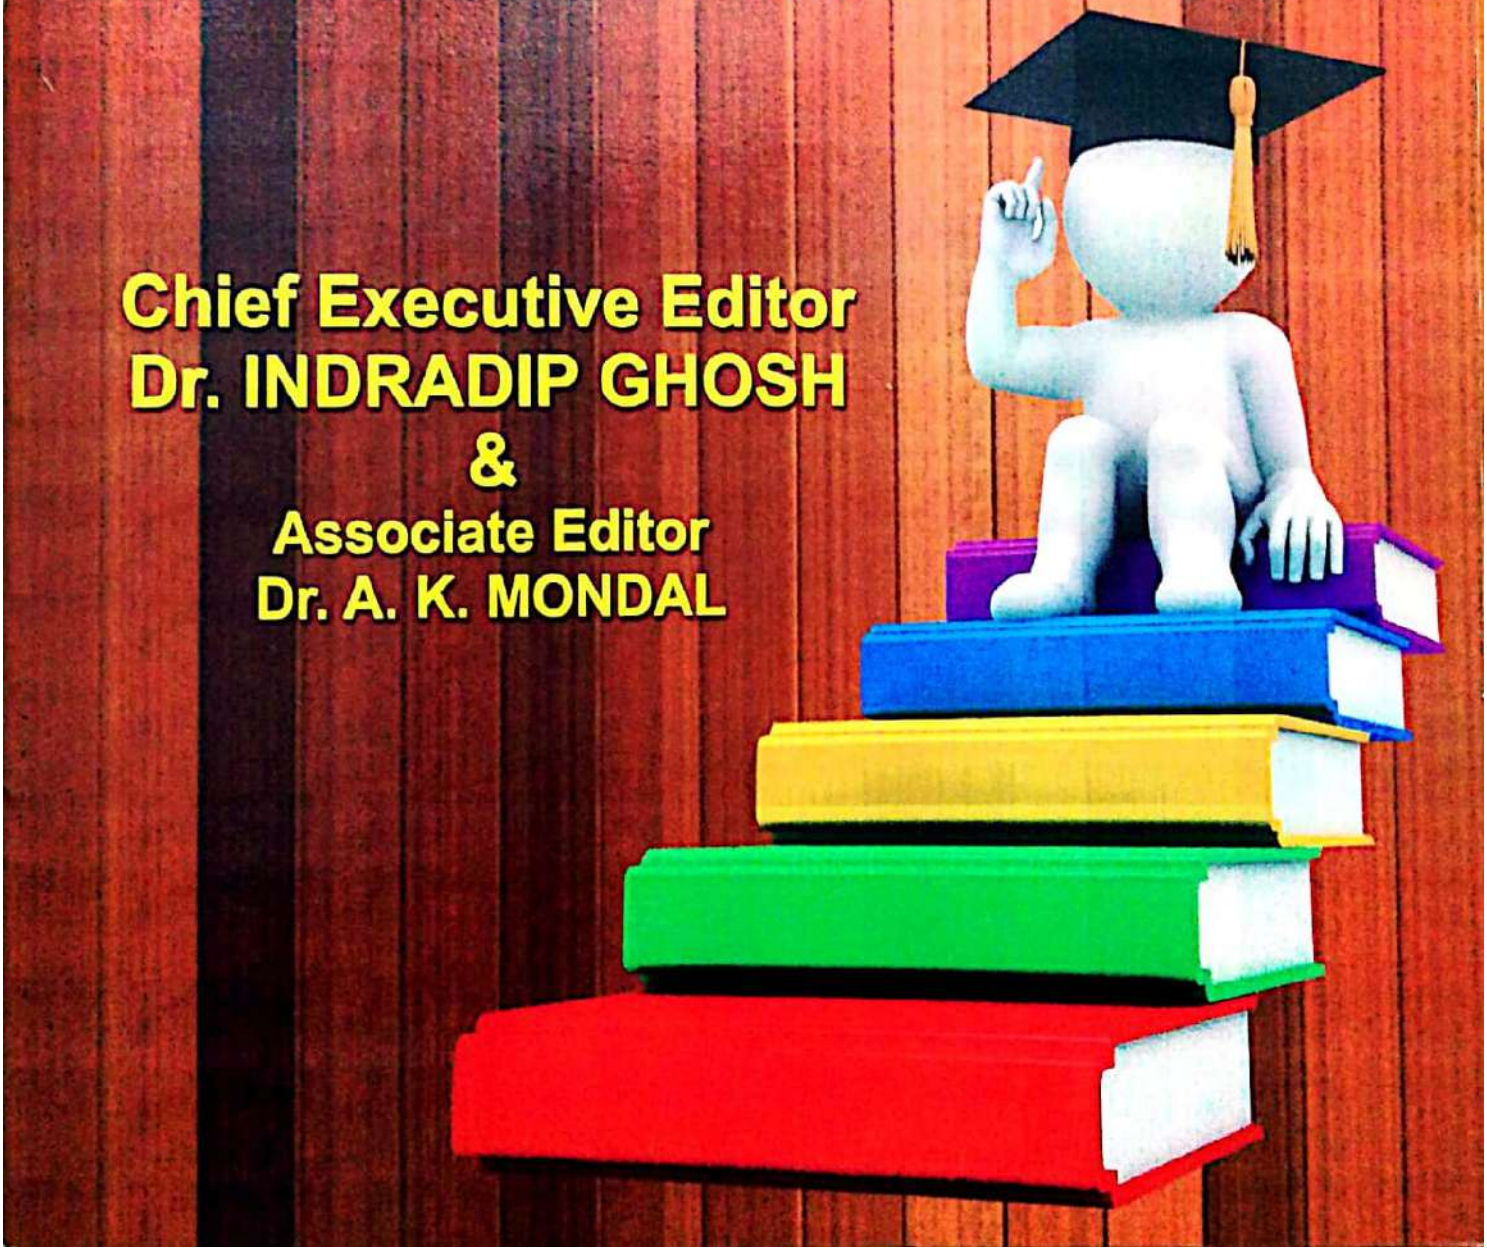

Laxmi Narayan Saha

Introduction

Parks and squares of urban areas have played significant role which balance the need for city conservation against degradation of urban environment while keeping the rapid urban development. Development, maintenance and preservation of the parks and squares are tough issues for Govt. as well as for different communities. Recently, urbanization in many cities forwarded the need for more greenery to serve for various objectives like environmental protection, recreation, physical activities etc. Travel cost method (TCM) is a particular technique to valuate public park services. This is a survey based valuation method which seeks to place a value on recreational sites or in other words, this is a non-market procedure whereby a value for a recreation site is obtained by considering how much people are ready to spend to reach the site. In brief it can be travel cost, entry fee, distance travelled, time taken, mode of transport etc. to avail recreational benefit of parks and squares. In this study travel cost together with mode of transport, travel time and travel distance are used to identify the value of park benefit to users. This study integrate the traditional method of travel cost valuation together with other variables to reflect total benefit generate at site visitation. However, it is necessary to assume that users select one site rather than multiple sites to visit on any one trip. By this assumption, it can allow us to determine the value of travel costs for actual trip to park.

AIR POLLUTION AND THE ROLE OF URBAN FORESTRY TO MITIGATE IT- A CASE STUDY OF KOLKATA MUNICIPAL CORPORATION (KMC)

Laxmi Narayan Saha
Asst. Prof., Panihati Mahavidyalaya, Sodepur, Kolkata• Email. laxminarayan75@gmail.com

ABSTRACT

One of the major environmental issues of the present day world is air pollution. Pollution is an unwanted change in the physical, chemical, or biological characteristics of air, water, and soil that may or will harmfully affect human life or create a potential health hazard of any living organisms. The substance which causes pollution is called a pollutant which may be any chemical, physical, or biotic component. Urban forestry may be defined as the art, science and technology of managing trees and forest resources in and around community ecosystems for the physiological, sociological, economic, and aesthetic benefits that trees provide society. The term urban forest includes all tree stands and individual trees in and around urban areas. Urban forests play an important role in improving the quality of the urban environment. A healthy and well-managed urban forest can contribute many ecological benefits e.g. ability to remove air pollutants from atmosphere, reduce storm water runoff, alleviate the intensity of the heat island etc. Like other metropolitan areas in developing countries, Kolkata Municipal Corporation (KMC) is facing many environmental problems on account of poor urban planning and rapid population growth. Air pollution is the most important environmental pollution in KMC which causing health problems. Both in direct and indirect ways tree can reduce air pollution. Directly tree can absorb gaseous pollutants like SO^2, NO^2 etc. and indirectly it can reduce air temperature through evapotranspiration. This paper highlights the air quality at different stations of KMC with reference to pollutants. The paper also addresses the importance of urban forestry to combat air pollution in KMC. The concluding statement is that urban forestry should be given priority in KMC along with other developmental activities for sustainable urban development.

Introduction :

One of the major environmental issues of the present day world is air pollution. Quality of urban environment can be improved by urban forestry. It provides many ecological benefits for an urban ecosystem. Urban forest can reduce storm water runoff, alleviate the intensity of the heat island, storage and sequestrate CO_2 and most importantly bring down harmful effects of air pollution. Because of poor planning and rapid development metropolitan areas of developing countries facing severe environmental problems and among them air pollution is considered to be the most crucial one. It is responsible for health problems and also loss of lives. Both in direct and indirect ways urban forestry can remove pollutants from the air. Like other metropolitan areas in developing countries, Kolkata Municipal Corporation (KMC) is also facing different environmental pollution and the most outstanding issue is air pollution. Urban forestry can alleviate the harmful effect of air pollution.

Objectives :

An attempt has been made in this paper to meet the following objectives.

- To highlight the air quality at different stations in KMC
- To outline the present scenario of urban forest in KMC
- To study the relevance of urban forestry to combat air pollution in KMC

Modern Agricultural Practices and Environmental Impact

Dr. Laxmi Narayan Saha,
Asst. Prof., Panihati Mahavidyalaya, Sodepur, Kolkata

Introduction:

At the global scale, agriculture is the largest land use in terms of area and it is the most important land use in terms of environmental impact. According to Mather (1986), modern agricultural practices have no doubt given a fresh lease to agricultural land use at the cost of environmental consequences. Agriculture and environment go hand in hand. Although agriculture is necessary for the country, it contributes to several environmental problems. More than 125 crores people i.e. about 16% of the world's population lives in India on merely 2.43% of earth's land. Further, our country's 75% population lives in villages and a large sector, (90%) of our rural population depends on agriculture and allied activities for their livelihood. At the time of India's Independence, our priority was to provide for the basic human needs of food, fuel and shelter etc. to the vast majority of the population. Due to increased demands, it had become imperative to improve as well as increase the crop production. To feed the increasing population it is dire need for vertical expansion of land which invited advanced agricultural innovations. This application included development of agricultural implements, engineered plants, seeds, food plants, fertilizers, pesticides etc. Although the newly adopted innovations in agriculture initially strengthened the economic foothold but such impositions have adversely affected the total environmental system. In spite of some sort of progress in the field of agriculture, some

Technological Progress in the Indian Textile Industry During the Post liberalization Period

Dr. Anindita Basu (Chowdhury)*

I. INTRODUCTION :

Textile industry is one of the largest segments of the Indian economy. This industry is also significant in the global context. The industry largely depends upon the textile manufacturing and export. India earns about 27% of its total foreign exchange through textile exports. Further, the textile industry in India also contributes nearly 14% of the total industrial production of the country. It also contributes around 3% of GDP of the country. This industry is also largest in the country in terms of employment generation. It not only generates jobs in its own industry, but also opens up scopes for other ancillary sectors.

This oldest industry has witnessed several changes during the post independence period. There has been occurred a quick upturn in the immediate post-independence period until 1960s but it has faced a declining trend after that period. In 1985 the New Textile Policy has been introduced to improve the productivity of the industry. This is the first time in the post-independence period emphasis has been placed on productivity in sharp contrast to the thrust on employment. Though the seventh plan (1985-1990) identifies employment generation as the main objective of the economic planning the New Textile Policy (1985) treated productivity and efficiency as the priority concern. In this policy, some of the several measures have also been undertaken to eliminate or reduce control.

The Industrial Policy of 1991 eliminated the need for mills to obtain licenses for new capacity, removed restrictions that had kept large companies under monopolies and Restrictive Prevention Act from making new investments and provided for some automatic clearances for new investment proposals. In this New Industrial Policy the main objective of the government was to increase the export of yarn irrespective of the quantum of yarn production and the domestic requirement which create problem to continue the cloth production due to hike in the price of yarn. Thus economic liberalization affected poor and vulnerable social groups adversely.

Liberalization policies relaxed several licensing requirements, raised the maximum limits of allowable investment and reduced import control. Businesses were also encouraged to modernize their technological base through the disbursement of cheaper credit. In Textile Undertaking Act, 1995, government of India tried its best to offer relevant facilities so as to exploit the sector to its full potential and achieve the target.

Role of Education in Establishing Gender Justice

*Shouvik Roy

Introduction

Gender Justice can be defined as the Protection and Promotion of civil, political, economic and social rights on the basis of gender equality. It necessities taking a gender perspective on the rights themselves, as well as the assessment of access and obstacles to the enjoyment of these rights for both women, men, girls and boys and adopting gender-sensitive strategies for protecting and promoting them. It is often used with reference to emancipator projects that advance women's rights through legal change, or promote women's interests in social and economic policy. However, the term is rarely given a precise definition and is often used interchangeably with notions of gender equality, gender equity, women's empowerment and women's rights. In the spirit of social justice gender justice is about more than simply questioning the relationship between men and women. It involves crafting strategies for corrective action toward transforming society as a whole to make it more just and equal and it means

GENDER SENSITIZATION AND FEMALE INFANTICIDE PROGRAMME

The workshop on Gender Sensitization and Female Infanticide has been conducted on 17th March 2016 in the College Premises to create awareness among girl child, female infanticide and various issues and problems with regard to women in the society. In the workshop, experts from "Gana Unnoyon Porishod" delivered lecture to the NSS volunteers, teachers and other student participants of the institutions.

AWARENESS PROGRAMME ON INCLUSION OF GIRL IN KANYASHREE SCHEME

Date: 30/06/2017

An awareness programme on inclusion of girl in Kanyashree Scheme has been organized in collaboration with SDO office ,Barackpore to make them understand about the various scholarship,facilities and schemes available for girl child below 18 years of age .The motto of the programme is to empower girl child and motivate them for continuing their higher studies.120 students and 03 nos.of staff of the college were presented in this programme.

Criterion 7.1.10: Number of specific initiatives to address locational advantages and disadvantages year-wise during the last five years

2013-2014:

The college has taken initiative to build up passengers waiting shed for buses near the stone thrown distance from the college. The institute approaches the M.L.A and M.P of this area for the said initiative. Due to this holistic approach of the college, the M.L.A an M.P. of this area have taken holistic steps towards implementation of the said proposal and said waiting shed has built up. Such initiative of the college not only benefited the students of the institution but also the local community.

2014-2015:

1. The College had approached the municipality to install a sign post indicating the location of College.

2. The College had approached the municipality to install traffic signals along the Barasat Road over which the College is located.

2015-2016:

1. The college's location has vast advantages in the entire proximity of the vast radius geographically. Sodepur Railway Station is located within a distance of 2 kms from the college. Moreover, the college is located in front of Barasat Road which play as connectivity between Jessore Road and B.T. Road over which buses of different enlisted routes are plying. All this advantages helps the examinees to attend the venue easily and provides the institute advantages in conducting the examination due to its easy transport connectivity. Due to all this factors the college has a fair advantage of its prime location.

2. As the huge traffic are playing over the Barasat Road in front of the college proximity, so the college has felt the necessity of build up a bumper i.e., speed breaker in front of the college main gate to make save the students life. To make success of this initiative the college authority approached the municipal authority and convinced them about the necessity of buildup the speed breaker in front of the college. The college follows up the said programme. Such initiative of the college not only benefited the students of the institution but also the local community to a great extent.

2016-2017:

The college has taken holistic approach towards start operating a new bus route through the Barasat road which is passing through in front of the college campus proximity. To make success of this initiative the college had approached the Panihati Municipality for starting of a new bus route between Madhyagram and Howrah station and on this basis follow up the bus service stated. With this aim in mind the college authority in co-operation with Panihati Municipality has initiated the regular playing of bus services between Madhyagram and Howrah Station in order to helps the students to avail the transport facility economically and in time. Such initiative of the college not only benefitted the students of the institution but also the local community to a great extent.

2017-2018:

The College was entrusted to conduct WBCS examination by PSC on 28.01.2018 due to locational advantage of the College.

The committee may give a hearing to the student to ascertain the misconduct and suggest one or more disciplinary actions based on the nature of misconduct.

[B] . Academic Integrity

Academic integrity is essential for the success of an Institution and its research missions as well, and hence its violation constitutes a serious offence. The Policy on academic integrity, forms an integral part of the Code which applies to all students of the Institution to which they should adhere. Failure to uphold these principles threatens both the reputation of the Institution and the value of the degrees awarded to its students. Every pupil of the Institution should feel responsible to ensure the highest standards of academic integrity.

The principles of academic integrity require that a student should

i) properly acknowledges and cites use of the ideas, results, material or words of others.
ii) Properly acknowledge all contributors to a given piece of work.
iii) Make sure that all assignments in a course are submitted by his/her own.
iv) Perform academic activities without the aid of impermissible materials or collaboration by obtaining all data or results by ethical means and reports them accurately without suppressing any results inconsistent with his/her interpretation or conclusions.
v) Have right to pursue their educational goals without interference.
vi) Violations of this policy include, but are not limited to:

(a) Plagiarism: Plagiarism means the use of materials, ideas, figures, codes or data as one's own, without appropriately acknowledging the original source. This may involve submission of material, verbatim or paraphrased, that is authored by another person or published earlier by oneself. Examples of plagiarism include: (1) Reproducing, in whole or part, text/sentences from a report, book, thesis, publication or the internet. (2) Reproducing one's own previously published data, illustrations, figures, images, or someone else's data, etc. (3) Taking material from class-notes or incorporating material from the internet graphs, drawings, photographs, diagrams, tables, spreadsheets, computer programs, or other non-textual material from other sources into one's class reports, presentations, manuscripts, research papers or thesis without proper attribution. (4) Self plagiarism which constitutes copying verbatim from one's own earlier published work in a journal or conference proceedings without appropriate citations. (5) Submitting a purchased or downloaded term paper or other materials to satisfy a course requirement. (6) Paraphrasing or changing an author's words or style without citation.

(3) Using unauthorized material, copying, collaborating when not authorized, and purchasing or borrowing papers or material from various sources. (4) Fabricating (making up) or falsifying (manipulating) data and reporting them in thesis and publications. (5)Creating sources, or citations that do not exist (6) Altering previously evaluated and re-submitting the work for re-evaluation (7) Signing another student's name on an assignment, report, research paper, thesis or attendance sheet.

(c) Conflict of Interest: A clash of personal or private interests with professional activities can lead to a potential conflict of interest, in diverse activities such as teaching, research, publication, working on committees, research funding and consultancy. It is necessary to protect actual professional independence, objectivity and commitment, and also to avoid an appearance of any impropriety arising from conflicts of interest. Conflict of interest is not restricted to personal financial gain; it extends to a large gamut of professional academic activities including peer reviewing, serving on various committees, which may, for example, oversee funding or give recognition, as well as influencing public policy. To promote transparency and enhance credibility, potential conflicts of interests must be disclosed in writing to appropriate authorities, so that a considered decision can be made on a case-by-case basis. Some additional information is available also in the section below dealing with resources.

[C] . Anti-Ragging

The Institution has a coherent and an effective anti-ragging policy in place which is based on the 'UGC Regulation on Curbing the Menace of Ragging in Higher Educational Institutions, 2009 (hereinafter referred to as the 'UGC Regulations'). The UGC Regulations have been framed in view of the directions issued by the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India to prevent and prohibit ragging in all Indian Educational Institutions and Colleges. The said UGC Regulations shall apply mutatis mutandis to the Institution.

Ragging constitutes one or more of the following acts: a) any conduct by any student or students whether by words spoken or written or by an act which has the effect of teasing, treating or handling with rudeness any student; b) indulging in rowdy or undisciplined activities by any student or students which causes or is likely to cause annoyance, hardship, physical or psychological harm or to raise fear or apprehension thereof in any other student; c) asking any student to do any act which such student will not in the ordinary course do and which has the effect of causing or generating a sense of shame, or torment or embarrassment so as to adversely affect the physique or psyche of such a student; d) any act by a senior student that prevents, disrupts or disturbs the regular academic activity of any student; e) exploiting the services of a student for completing the academic tasks assigned to an individual or a group of students; f) any act of financial extortion or forceful expenditure burden put on a student by other students; g) any act of physical abuse including all variants of it: sexual abuse, stripping, forcing obscene and lewd acts, gestures, causing bodily harm or any other danger to health or person; h) any act or abuse by spoken words, emails, post, public insults which would also include deriving perverted pleasure, vicarious or sadistic thrill from actively or passively participating in the discomfiture to any other student ; i) any act that affects the mental health and selfconfidence of any other student with or without an intent to derive a sadistic pleasure or showing off power, authority or superiority by a student over any other student.

Anti-Ragging Committee: The Anti-Ragging Committee shall examine all complaints of anti-ragging and come out with recommendation based on the nature of the incident.

Anti-Ragging Squad: To render assistance to students, an Anti-Ragging Squad, which is a smaller body, has also been constituted consisting of various members of the campus community. The said Squad shall keep a vigil on ragging incidents taking place in the community and undertake patrolling functions. Students may note that the Squad is active and alert at all times and are empowered to inspect places of potential ragging, and also make surprise raids in hostels and other hotspots in the College. The Squad can also investigate incidents of ragging and make recommendations to the Anti-Ragging Committee and shall work under the guidance of the Anti-Ragging Committee.

A student found guilty by the committee will attract one or more of the following punishments, as imposed by the Anti-Ragging Committee:

a) Suspension from attending classes and academic privileges.
b) Withholding/ withdrawing scholarship/ fellowship and other benefits.
c) Debarring from appearing in any test/ examination or other evaluation process.
d) Withholding results.
e) Debarring from undertaking any collaborative work or attending national or international conferences/symposia/meeting to present his/her research work.
f) Suspension/ expulsion from the hostels and mess.
g) Cancellation of admission.
h) Expulsion from the institution and consequent debarring from admission to any other institution for a specified period. i) In cases where the persons committing or abetting the act of ragging are not identified, the institute shall resort to collective punishment.
i) If need be, in view of the intensity of the act of ragging committed, a First Information Report (FIR) shall be filed by the Institute with the local police authorities. The Anti-Ragging Committee of the Institute shall take appropriate decision, including imposition of punishment, depending on the facts and circumstances of each incident of ragging and nature and gravity of the incident of ragging.

[D] . Gender Discrimination and Allied Harassment:

The Institution's stand on prevention and prohibition of sexual harassment at workplace shall apply mutatis mutandis to the students of the Institute which can be accessed and reviewed by the students as per the Sexual Harassment of Women atWorkplace (Prevention, Prohibition and Redressal) Act, 2013. Students should note that sexual misconduct or harassment encompasses a range of conduct, including but not limited to sexual assault, unwanted touching or persistent unwelcome comments, e-mails, or pictures of an insulting or degrading sexual nature, which may constitute harassment, which shall depend of the circumstances of each case.

Code of Conduct for the Principal

The chair of the Principal of a college has got multifaceted roles to play and to shoulder multilateral responsibilities having characteristics of a patron, custodian, supervisor, administrator, adjudicator, protector, inspirer and so on. As the Academic and Administrative Head of the Institution the Principal remains liable to follow certain codes of ethics in his conduct as proclaimed by the University Grants Commission (UGC) in tandem with the guidelines framed by the Ministry of Human Resource Development (MHRD) and the set of prescripts enforced by the Government of West Bengal as in the West Bengal Service Rules (WBSR). These codes of conduct are applicable, in general, for the College Teachers as well as for the Administrator of any organisation. Specifics of the salient and significant codes applicable in the conduct of Principal, as perceived and enforced by Panihati Mahavidyalaya, are jotted underneath:

1. To uphold and upkeep the ethos of inclusiveness in terms of imparting education in the institution.
2. To protect the collective interest of different sections of the institution so that each and all can perform freely and give their highest for the institution building.
3. To institute, nourish and enforce meting equal treatment to all the stakeholders in the College so that there remains no scope of any discriminatory and disparate practice at any level within the stretch of the College.
4. To uphold and maintain the essence of social justice for all the stakeholders irrespective of their caste, creed, race, sex, or religious identity as within the framework of Indian Constitution.
5. To create and maintain an unbiased gender-free atmosphere within the periphery of the College so that all the stakeholders enjoy equal opportunities.
6. To generate and maintain required alertness among all the stakeholder of the College so that the chances of incidents of sexual harassment get ever minimized and ultimately eradicated. (The Sexual Harassment of Women at Workplace: Prevention, Prohibition and Redressal Act, 2013 will provide the redressal measures of issues related to sexual harassment within the boundary of college campus.)
7. To initiate and propagate the spirit of welfare within all the sections of human resources attached directly or indirectly with the College and hence to build mutual confidence amongst them.
8. To maintain and promote academic activities in the College in all possible avenues already explored and thus encourage exploration of newer avenues for further academic pursuit.
9. To create an environment conducive for research oriented academic parleys and thus promote research activities in the institution to add further to the knowledge pool.
10. To uphold upkeep and enforce discipline in the behavioural manifestation of all the stakeholders of the institution and thus maintain campus-serenity required for academics.
11. To promote and maintain the practice of extra-curricular activities amongst the students and other human resources of the institution and thus adds to the societal dynamism simile to essence-of-life.
12. To endeavour for the upkeep of tranquillity of the region surrounding the College so that academic practices comes to gradual prevalence and only prevail, eventually.
13. To promote and maintain harmonious relationships of the College with the adjoining society in order to ensure spontaneous flourish and prosperity of all the students of the institution.

14. To endeavour and strive for maintaining vibrancy of attitudes of all the stakeholders of the institution and thus to nourish & enhance their capabilities.

As the academic head of the institution, the Principal should ensure the existence of an academic environment within the College and should endeavour for its enrichment by encouraging research activities. Thus, the Principal should put best efforts to bring in adequate infrastructural and financial support for the College. The Principal should encourage the faculty members of the Institution to take up research projects, publish research papers, arrange for regular seminars and participate in conference/symposium/workshop/seminars. .

Code of conduct for Governing Body

The governing body of the college is responsible for ensuring the effective management of the institution and for planning its future development.

(a) The governing body should act to approve the mission and strategic vision of the institution, long-term academic plans and ensure that these meet the interests of stakeholders, including students, local communities, Government and others representing public interests.
(b) The body is formed to monitor institutional performance and quality assurance arrangements which should be, where possible and appropriate, benchmarked against other institutions.
(c) Governing bodies ensure compliance with the statutes, ordinances and provisions regulating their institution, including regulations by Statutory bodies, such as UGC, as well as regulations laid out by the State government and affiliating university.
(d) The governing body should ensure that non-discriminatory systems are in place to provide equality of opportunity for staff members and students.
(e) The governing body should actively monitor that the Institution implements the requirements of State and National Governments for reservations of seats and staff positions and provide required support to minority groups.
(f) The general principle of transparency of the governing body applies that students and staff of the institution should have appropriate access to information about the proceedings of the Governing body. All sorts of agendas of meetings, draft minutes (if cleared by the chair) and the signed minutes of governing body meetings together with the papers considered at meetings should generally be available for inspection by staff and students. There may, however, be matters covered in standing orders where it is necessary to observe confidentiality. Such matters are likely to concern individuals or have commercial sensitivity.

Code of Conduct for Teachers

Being the cadres of West Bengal Education Service, the teachers of this College should follow the code of conduct laid down in West Bengal Government Service Rules (https://wbxpress.com/west-bengal-service-rules).

But they are also subject to the guidelines provided by UGC for college teachers. As per UGC guidelines whoever adopts teaching as a profession assumes the obligation to conduct himself/herself in accordance with the ideals of the profession. A teacher is constantly under the scrutiny of his students and the society at large. Therefore, every teacher should see that there is no incompatibility between his precepts and practice. The national ideals of education must be his/her own ideals.

The basic ethical values underlying the code are care, trust, integrity and respect; embodying those aspects relevant to the teacher, who is entrusted with social responsibility. A definitive code for this Institution encompasses the following:

[A] . Professional Values

(i) Be concerned and committed to the interests of the students as the foremost aim of the teaching profession is to educate. This attitude should be directed towards the specific needs of each student. He should be conscientious and dedicated and if necessary, should help the students beyond class hours without accepting any remuneration.

(ii) He shall not prevent any student from expressing his viewpoint although it may differ from that of his own. On the contrary, the student should be encouraged. Among other things, a teacher should accept constructive criticism.

(iii) He should try to develop an educational environment. Equal treatment should be meted out to all students irrespective of caste, creed, religion, gender or socio-economic status. There should not be any partiality or vindictive attitude towards any of them.

(iv) His aim should be to inspire students to generate more interest and develop a sense of inquiry in the pursuit of knowledge.

(v) The teacher should instil a scientific and democratic outlook among his students, making them community oriented, patriotic and broad minded. This is a part of his social responsibility.

(vi) Above all a teacher should conform to the ethos of his profession and act in a dignified manner. He should keep in mind that society has entrusted him with their children.

[B] . Professional Development and Practices

(i) It may be conceded that learning has no end. It is imperative that a teacher continuously updates himself in his field and other related ones in order to upgrade himself and the student community. He must also acquaint himself with recent methodologies and other applications.

(ii) A teacher must, alongside teaching, pursue research as innovation contributes to the continuous progress and development of a subject. He should involve himself in seminars and

(iii) Workshops where there is interchange of academic topics.A career long professional development is therefore a necessity.

(iv) Developing new teaching strategies and curriculum as well as planning for an upgraded academic system should be an integral part of his professional duties.

(v) The teacher will have to carry out the Institution's educational responsibilities such as conducting admissions, college seminars and so on. He should also be participating in extra-curricular activities of the College as in sports, extension activities and cultural programmes. This will generate a holistic development and a congenial relationship with the students.

[C] . Professional Integrity

(i) Teachers must maintain ethical behaviour in professional practice by accurately representing certifications, licenses and other qualifications.

(ii) Honesty should not be compromised in research. Plagiarism is an evil that cannot be accepted at any cost. The aim should be to improve quality of research.

(iii) There should be no conflict between professional work and private practice. Private tuitions should be avoided as they negatively impact upon the quality of college teaching.

(iv) The teacher must respect the confidentiality of all information regarding exam affairs as well as matters dealing with colleagues and students unless legally or legitimately demanded.

[D] . Professional Collaboration

(i) Teachers should be respectful and cooperative towards their colleagues, assisting them and sharing the responsibilities in a collaborative manner

(ii) Teachers should refrain from lodging unsubstantiated allegations against their colleagues in order to satisfy vested interests.

(iii) Teachers should discharge their responsibilities in accordance with the established rules outlined by the higher authorities and adhere to the conditions of contract.

(iv) Teachers should refrain from responding to unnecessary political motivations as these ruin the sanctity and smooth progress of an educational institution. This is more so as the Institution is located in a vulnerable border area.

(v) Teachers should accord the same respect and treatment to the non-teaching staff as they do to their fellow teachers. The Institution should hold joint meetings before upholding any decision regarding the College

(vi) There should be regular interactions with the guardians of the students as this is necessary for the improvement of the students and the Institution.

(vii) Despite the commuting distance, the teachers should refrain from taking unnecessary leave and maintain regularity for smooth functioning of the college.

Code of Conduct for Support Staff

Being the employees of the Government of West Bengal, all the support staff of this College should follow the code of conduct stipulated by the State Government. The College has put forward its code of ethics for the support staff along the following lines.

Professional Conduct

(i) The support staff should acquaint themselves with the College policies and adhere to them to their best ability.

(ii) Each of them should perform the duties he has been assigned sincerely and diligently as well as with accountability.

(iii) They should avail of leave with prior intimation to the extent possible. In case of sudden contingencies, information on their absence should be promptly forwarded to the College Authority.
(iv) The support staff should not, on any account, undertake any other job within the stipulated office hours. Neither shall he engage himself in any trade or business within college premises.
(v) They should not hamper the functioning of the college by engaging themselves in political or antisecular activities.
(vi) They should not engage in remarks or behaviour that might be considered disrespectful to their non-teaching colleagues, teaching staff or students.

Workplace Conduct

(i) They should be punctual as their prior presence is required daily for the commencement and smooth functioning of college activities.
(ii) They should also be responsible for the proper use and maintenance of college equipments and furniture.
(iii) No support staff should be under the influence of drugs or alcohol during office hours.
(iv) The support staff often has access to confidential information regarding examination matters and other matters relating to other staff, through official records. It is expected that they respect the confidentiality of such matters.
(v) They should perform their duties with honesty and integrity. There should be no falsification of official documents entrusted to them.
(vi) The support staff should show no discrimination on basis of gender, caste or religion.

Professional Relationship

(i) Interactions between support staff and students are frequent as for example during counselling, admissions, disbursement of financial aid, examinations and so on. On a regular basis the students come into contact with support staff in libraries, science laboratories and computer laboratories. It is expected that they behave in a helpful, friendly and patient manner towards the students.

(ii) The support staff should give due respect to the decisions made by the college authorities. Any matter of contention should be settled amicably and not through antagonistic behaviour, as the progress of an institution depends upon mutual goodwill and trust.

(iii) The non-teaching staff should consider the teaching staff as their colleagues and not as separate entities. It is the shared functioning that will generate a harmonious environment.

(iv) The Support Staff are the first to come into contact with the guardians of students as during examinations. They must keep in mind the fact that their behaviour will be considered to reflect that of the institution. They should thus interact patiently and politely.

Vision of the Institution:

To offer education to mostly the first generation learners with modern approaches.

To consolidate activities of development through centralized administration.

To expand the courses to higher level of studies with modernization of educational approaches.

To link with the needs of the locality.

Mission of the Institution:

Administrative monitoring on general & academic activities and execution of proposals & demands after evaluation.

To prevent excess drainage of resources maintenance and recurring expenses for general and departmental purposes are under thorough evaluation.

Modernization of college website, office and accounts and surveillance through CCTV to maintain college integrity.

Centralized use of UGC funds to enhance general and ICT support infrastructure.

To consider proposals of opening PG courses for some departments.

To prepare with proposals to bring extramural funds for expanding education and research beyond curriculum.

To encourage and support extension and social outreach activities relevant for local community.

To provide training for skill development to students and local youth.

Overall, to upgrade the education environment with modernized approaches and avenues to spread the effective education with social values.

On 26th January and 15th August of every year Panihati Mahavidyalaya will come together to cherish the Republic Day and the spirit of liberation that will engulf the whole nation. It will be an occasion to reminisce the sacrifices of the brave martyrs and patriotic countrymen that laid the foundation of a free and independent India.

To symbolize these notions, in front of Main Building of Panihati Mahavidyalaya will play host to flag hoisting by Principal, in the presence of a gathering of students, professors and non teaching staff of our college. A speech will be delivered by the Principal and patriotic songs reminding the audience of the diverse country's legacy are to be played.

The essence of independence the nation earned through countless sacrifices and constant struggle will be deeply introspected amidst a resolve to never bend to the tyranny of any force that challenges our fundamental right of freedom.
